My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there. They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebonojo, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MAria Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare.

Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

Susan L., New Jersey

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

Whether we pack you or you decide to pack yourself, it should still get done in a way that makes life easier at your destination.

During decades of experience with all types of moves, we've found the key to packing efficiently is to approach it strategically. As we'll explain below, it means some planning, deciding early on what you want to keep and what doesn't need to travel with you, grouping items together and staging your packing process in a way that minimizes disruption to your household. With our expert guidelines you can reduce the inconvenience of living with boxes at your feet.

For a large house, 1 month of packing time is our recommended estimate if you aim for at least a few boxes a day and a room a week. For smaller houses and apartments, allocate a 2 week minimum packing time.

1. Create a MasterPlan and identify timings and deadlines for each room. Plan out each room one by one identifying how many boxes you will need for each room and any challenges.
2. Declutter. Identify what won't travel with you and can be donated, given away, sold or removed ahead of time. There's never been a better time to let some things go.
3. Ensure you leave out any essentials that will be needed for moving day.
4. Label your boxes, noting the room and items inside it and clearly mark FRAGILE items.
5. Do not overfill boxes as it increases the likelihood of accidents during transportation.
6. Consider how you will manage valuables and important documents.
7. If any custom crates are needed for large or fragile items, factor that packing to be completed well ahead of Moving Day.
8. Stop buying groceries a week before you leave.

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there. They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebonojo, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MAria Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you. They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them. Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. In Queens, the first and last few days of each month are peak moving days, especially in spring and summer. This is because most new leases start at the beginning of the month. If you are able to, move in the middle of the month to ensure availability with our movers.

Both morning and afternoon moves are popular moving times in Queens. Mornings are in high demand at any time of year, as many people want to settle into their new home earlier. Another reason why morning moves are popular is that some elevator buildings typically don't let people move in after 5pm, making morning and afternoon moves a necessity.

Fridays and weekends are high-demand moving days as most people try to avoid taking too much time off work. Sunday can also be a cheaper move for walk up apartments and house moves since elevator buildings do not generally let people move in & out on a Sunday. If you can afford to take a day out of the office, the start of the week is always a more flexible time to move, from Monday to Wednesday.

As Queens best moving company, Piece of Cake Moving offers extensive moving services in Queens. No matter what you are moving or where you are moving it to, we've got you covered 24/7, 365 days a year.

Services include:

Yes, Piece of Cake Moving offers short and long term storage services in Queens. Our On-Demand Queens storage service is affordable and reliable. We will come to you, pick up your items, move them to our storage facility in NYC and deliver them back to you when you need them. Never visit a storage unit or have the hassle of moving your own items. Get a free storage quote HERE

Yes, Piece of Cake offers our plastic moving bin rental service in Queens. Our plastic moving bins are strong, sturdy and environmentally friendly. They are also clean, pre-assembled and cheaper than traditional cardboard boxes. They are delivered to your door ready to be packed with no assembly required. Once you're done we will pick them up and sanitize them for the next customer. Our plastic moving bins are available to rent in weekly time blocks to give you ample time to pack and unpack. Reserve your bins HERE for your next Queens moving day.

The general rule of thumb is to base your tip on a percentage of your total move cost, and tipping 15% – 20% of your total cost is an industry average. We recommend a tiered approach depending on whether you're managing a large relocation, a medium sized move with some challenges or a small local move. In the end, if you can't afford a tip, good reviews on websites such as Yelp, Google and Facebook are much appreciated by your movers and go a long way in recognizing their hard work.

The only moving company in NYC that offers any day and time moving services. No matter how big or small your move is we will move it.

We specialize in local residential NYC and New York State moves. We can move you across all of New York City's Five Boroughs and surrounding Tri State locations.

From NYC to Miami, California and Seattle we can move you to any state in the USA. With on time long distance delivery dates and safe packing we will get you settled into your new home quickly.

We can move your office overnight, on the weekend and during holidays to minimize your downtime. With full office packing and unpacking, your staff will be up and running the next morning.

Need to move a few small items or moving out of a studio with minimal furniture? Do not lift a finger with our small move service.

Need to move urgently, our last minute moving service will save the day. We will get you into your new address asap! We also offer emergency packing and storage services.

Just did my move from NYC to CT with Piece of Cake and had a fantastic experience. The process was smooth, courteous, and fast. Very friendly movers (Jozo and team) who worked hard and efficiently. They packed everything, dismantled only what was absolutely necessary and set it all up at the drop off location. I was thrilled having them as my movers and will definitely use them again in the future. Conclusion: If you have to move, congratulations, you found your crew. Book these guys and you will be happy.

Stefan Worth, New York to Connecticut

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you. They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them. Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

The city's only on-demand mover, offering 24/7 moving on 365 days of the year, including holidays, to fit your needs.

We are a fully licensed and insured company, that is BBB accredited and complies with the regulations of NYDOT and US DOT requirements and standards.

The best day of a week to move is definitely Sunday – with less traffic & better parking situations – in always “difficult for parking” NYC.

If your building is a doorman building that does not allow moves on weekends, Tuesday and Wednesday would be days of a week to aim for – since less people, as per our stats, move on these dates.

We recommend getting touch with us 2-4 weeks before your move, depending on your move complexity and size.

In order to completely eliminate surprise factor on your move day (as per stats that's the No 1 reason New Yorkers are hesitant to move), our quotes are calculated in a guaranteed pricing system – that means it's not an estimate by the hour that is bound by delays and will never be accurate – and this quote is not based on weight, which can easily be abused by unscrupulous movers.

We calculate your guaranteed price based on the list of items, based on the accessibility of the truck and based on the distance between the locations.

As a part of our standard service we will always provide boxes for your hanging clothes, TVs, mirrors and picture frames – and leave you to box up your personal belongings that can be easily fitted in a regular size box. We can also upgrade your moving package to include packers & packing supplies as a part of your moving service, so you don't have to lift a finger!

No matter the size of your move we will bring as many trucks as needed to complete your move efficiently & securely.

Additionally, we will always reach out to you after your move to hear about your experience and check in if there's anything else we could do!

No, you are not responsible for any parking tickets our team might get while working on your move.

Reminder: your moving quote is not dependent on the duration of your move.

For moves into a storage & Long Distance moves, food is not allowed.

We recommend you or your representative staying with your crew through the whole move, until it's completion.

In NYC parking permits are difficult to get and rarely obtainable – but, we know our way around in our city!

We recommend you or your representative staying with your crew through the whole move, until it's completion.

Consolidated would involve packing & pick up by one of our NYC crews, and usage of our materials, protection, etc. The items would be consolidated in a 53' tractor-trailer for cross country transportation, and delivered by the long distance carrier we work with (windows 1-10 business days for FL, SC, GA; 1-14 business days for cross country moves).

Straight delivery would involve us loading up o your items and delving with the same truck & crew at requested date (usually this would mean 24-48 hours delivery window)

If due to unexpected traffic/road delays your delivery happens outside your scheduled delivery window, our customer success team will work with you post-move on finding the reasonable and satisfactory solution.

Furniture assembly and disassembly is often unavoidable. Doorways, hallways, and stairways of most buildings are not designed for some of your large furniture items.

At Piece of Cake, our movers have been trained to disassemble and reassemble all kinds of furniture. We also have extensive experience with IKEA disassembly and reassembly, although it is advised that pressboard furniture may be at risk of damage once taken apart and moved. Why battle with the Allen key and screwdriver when we can make light work of the task.

One of the most time consuming and frustrating tasks can be the disassembly of specific items that are large or awkward and should receive special care and handling to be relocated. We will provide our assembly & disassembly services for the following items as part of our flat fee.

These bulky items are included in our flat price:

We can also provide assembly & disassembly services for your larger items. As these items require special care and time an additional fee may apply.

We remove the hassle of packing up all of your valuable items safely. You can decide what you want us to pack, there is no minimum limit to our packing service. You can use us to pack just your kitchen or your entire house.

We will not only pack up all of your items, we will unpack all of your belongings into your new address. You just tell us what and where you want everything placed.

Our eco friendly plastic moving bins are delivered to your door with no assembly required. Once you're done we will pick them up and sanitize them so that they can be used again.

We have made it easy by bundling important moving supplies into packages that suit your lifestyle. Delivered to your door before your move date

Your valuable furniture pieces, antiques and artwork will be safely handled with the upmost care. We will build custom crates for your items, wrap them with durable packing material and ensure the appropriate lifting resources

It takes specialized skills, equipment and training to move a piano safely, especially in NYC. We have experience moving upright, horizontal and all piano styles in between

We will pick up your items from your doorstep and deliver them to our secure NYC storage facility, where they will be safely stored for as little or as long as you like. Just let us know when you need your items back and we will drop them off at a time that suits you.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

We also offer cleaning services for both pre-move and post-move needs, so you can enjoy your clean space without

The cost of our white glove moving service mainly depends on factors like the volume of items, distance of the move, special handling requirements for fragile or valuable items, and any add-on services. Feel free to reach out to us for a personalized white glove moving service estimate or get an instant online quote.

Our white glove moving service has an extra touch of care with everything you would expect from a premium service experience. We meticulously pack and handle all your possessions for safe and reliable transport and unpack it all for you, too—all you need to do is wave your hand and tell us where. You can literally sit back and rest while we do all of the moving work for you.

Choosing a white glove moving service is an excellent option for individuals and families who are moving a lot of high-value, delicate, or bulky items that require special handling or disassembly and reassembly. It's also great if you want the assurance knowing that your treasured belongings are being handled by trained professionals using premium packing materials and specialized moving equipment.

Common scenarios when & why people have chosen Piece of Cake's white glove moving service:

Finding a reliable white glove moving company near you involves a few key steps. First, research moving companies with strong reputations and high ratings across multiple review platforms—and make sure they're fully licensed and insured. Piece of Cake Moving & Storage is highly rated on review sites like Google, Yelp, and Trustpilot, which reflects our commitment to quality service. Second, look for companies that offer detailed information about their services and what it includes, like comprehensive packing or handling of specialty items, and what coverage options they provide. Getting multiple quotes is also a great time to gauge responsiveness, professionalism, and their willingness to happily tailor fit a moving solution that meets your needs.

By default as required by Department of Transportation, your belongings will be covered with free BASIC coverage of $0.60 cents per pound per article (item). However, you ARE able to additionally insure your items, by going through a 3rd party insurance company, and choosing the level of liability & deductible levels. The city's only on-demand mover, offering 24/7 moving on 365 days of the year, including holidays, to fit your needs.

We are a fully licensed and insured company, that is BBB accredited and complies with the regulations of NYDOT and US DOT requirements and standards.

The best day of a week to move is definitely Sunday – with less traffic & better parking situations – in always “difficult for parking” NYC.

If your building is a doorman building that does not allow moves on weekends, Tuesday and Wednesday would be days of a week to aim for – since less people, as per our stats, move on these dates.

We recommend getting touch with us 2-4 weeks before your move, depending on your move complexity and size.

In order to completely eliminate surprise factor on your move day (as per stats that's the No 1 reason New Yorkers are hesitant to move), our quotes are calculated in a guaranteed pricing system – that means it's not an estimate by the hour that is bound by delays and will never be accurate – and this quote is not based on weight, which can easily be abused by unscrupulous movers.

We calculate your guaranteed price based on the list of items, based on the accessibility of the truck and based on the distance between the locations.

As a part of our standard service we will always provide boxes for your hanging clothes, TVs, mirrors and picture frames – and leave you to box up your personal belongings that can be easily fitted in a regular size box. We can also upgrade your moving package to include packers & packing supplies as a part of your moving service, so you don't have to lift a finger!

No matter the size of your move we will bring as many trucks as needed to complete your move efficiently & securely.

Additionally, we will always reach out to you after your move to hear about your experience and check in if there's anything else we could do!

No, you are not responsible for any parking tickets our team might get while working on your move.

Reminder: your moving quote is not dependent on the duration of your move.

For moves into a storage & Long Distance moves, food is not allowed.

We recommend you or your representative staying with your crew through the whole move, until it's completion.

In NYC parking permits are difficult to get and rarely obtainable – but, we know our way around in our city!

Consolidated would involve packing & pick up by one of our NYC crews, and usage of our materials, protection, etc. The items would be consolidated in a 53' tractor-trailer for cross country transportation, and delivered by the long distance carrier we work with (windows 1-10 business days for FL, SC, GA; 1-14 business days for cross country moves).

Straight delivery would involve us loading up o your items and delving with the same truck & crew at requested date (usually this would mean 24-48 hours delivery window)

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

In New Jersey life's pace can shift with the scenery, from the city streets of Newark to the beaches and boardwalks along the Jersey Shore. The same goes for understanding your NJ moving costs and planning well beyond just the moving day cost. Before your first box is even packed, expenses like packing supplies and optional services can add up. And if you're considering a comprehensive service, like a full-service white-glove move, it's important to know and manage your moving budget in advance.

At Piece of Cake Moving & Storage, we help you simplify your transition in NJ with straightforward, flat-fee pricing to ensure there are no unwanted surprises. Whether you're heading to a Jersey City loft or a seaside home, feel free to reach out for a personalized quote. In the meantime, we're here to help you navigate your NJ moving costs with ease and confidence.

Here's what we'll cover in this guide to help you accurately estimate your NJ moving costs:

For local moves within NJ, costs can vary significantly based on factors like the size of your home. On average, local moves within NJ cost $900 and can range anywhere from $450 for a studio to $1,850 for a large house.

Average NJ Local Moving Costs by Size

NJ Long-distance Moves

Out-of-state long-distance moves from NJ generally cost an average of $2,050, depending on the distance and volume of items. Factors like fuel costs, tolls, or an expedited drop-off delivery can also influence the price.

Out-of-state long-distance moves from NJ generally cost an average of $2,050, depending on the distance and volume of items. Factors like fuel costs, tolls, or an expedited drop-off delivery can also influence the price.

Specialty Items or Services

When you're gearing up for a move in NJ, remember to properly care for your special items that need a bit more prep time than just disassembly and tossing them in a box with packing peanuts. High value items like art, antiques, or even bulky furniture pieces like fitness equipment, pool tables, or pianos require special packing and handling. Make sure your movers know that they'll be moving specialized items for an accurate quote. Some pieces may need custom crates or climate-controlled transport.

For example, if you're moving with a hot tub, the moving company will need to deploy a team of enough people to handle moving the hot tub, as well as the professional equipment to be used. Professional movers will know their way around such a bulky piece and will be skilled in knowing how to maneuver it around tight corners without damaging the item or the property. Loading and securing it also takes expertise that is more than just strong arms, and that's going to be reflected in your NJ moving costs.

If you're considering extras like full insurance or a premium white-glove service, these add-ons come at an extra price and can bump up your moving costs, but it may be worth it for the added protection and coverage, especially if you're moving with a lot of high value possessions. You can rest easy knowing your treasured belongings are in good hands. It's all about weighing what services you need or want against what you're willing to spend.

In New Jersey's real estate market, living spaces vary as much as the Garden State's landscapes. You might find snug studio or one-bedroom condos off the urban streets in Jersey City, to sprawling estates tucked away in the hills of Somerset County. Moving from the former smaller units tend to be an advantage when moving time rolls around, as fewer items translate to lower moving costs.

Managing a local NJ move for smaller apartments or studios typically requires two movers, with costs averaging at $450 for a local NJ studio move and $750 for a local NJ one-bedroom move. But NJ moves aren't just about packing and unpacking—there's the unique Garden State challenges like navigating the infamous jughandles and dealing with tight parking regulations in densely populated areas like Hoboken or Jersey City, or moving through the narrow historic streets of towns like Morristown or Princeton. These can add an extra layer of complexities to handle.

Buildings with strict HOA regulations or those that require specific move-in/out times can also make the moving process more intricate. It's common for luxury buildings to require a certificate of insurance (COI) before allowing you to reserve service elevators for your move, which can also have limited availability during peak moving seasons. Make sure to check with your building management about their requirements and confirm if your movers can provide the necessary COI paperwork. At Piece of Cake Moving, we handle all your COI paperwork requirements free of charge with our moving service, so you can have one less thing to think about.

NJ Multi-room Moves

In New Jersey, larger residences often feature home offices, personal gyms, or expansive walk-in closets, which come with a higher moving cost. Whether you're upgrading to a larger suburban home or downsizing to a cozier urban unit, the logistics of moving and finding storage solutions in NJ can be challenging.

Whether you're upgrading to a larger suburban home or downsizing to a cozier urban unit, the logistics of moving and finding storage solutions in NJ can be challenging.

For these larger moves within NJ, it's common to require a team of 3+ professional movers. The complexity of the move can also increase if your residence is in a tightly-packed neighborhood like Hoboken or if it has limited access, such as many hillside homes in areas like the Palisades. Factors in determining the move cost include the layout of your house or building, elevator access or stairs, and handling specialty items.

When you're getting quotes from movers, it's important to provide detailed information about the volume of your belongings and the specifics of your residence. Other considerations like the time of day or week of your move, and any additional services like packing or storage, will also influence the price of your moving quote.

In New Jersey, even a studio apartment move can have costs of $150-$200 just for quality packing materials to keep your items secure, especially fragile glassware and dishes. For example, a typical three-shelf bookcase usually requires three medium-sized boxes, one for each shelf. This straightforward calculation helps you get a sense of just the right amount of packing supplies without overspending.

To cut down on these expenses, you may want to source sturdy boxes in good condition from local stores or reuse boxes from neighbors. For an eco-friendly and cost-effective alternative, consider renting reusable plastic moving bins. These bins cost around $50-$100 for a set of 20 for a week. They're durable, waterproof, and stack neatly, making them an excellent choice if you want to aim to minimize moving box clutter and go green. Just keep in mind, if you like to take your time unpacking, these bins are rented by the week, and costs can add up if you keep them longer than planned.

In New Jersey, finding a rental can feel like a marathon with plenty of hurdles to clear. From trendy lofts in Hoboken to historic houses in Morristown, the rental application process often comes with non-refundable fees. Expect charges like a $50 fee for credit checks, and application fees that usually range between $100 and $150.

When you're budgeting for your NJ move, remember to factor in these upfront costs. They can add up quickly and catch you off guard if you're not prepared and can potentially throw off your moving budget.

In New Jersey's rental market, it's essential to read over the details of your lease, specifically the notice period required for vacating your apartment or choosing not to renew. While a 30-day notice used to be standard, many leases now mandate a 60-day notice—a change that's become more common since COVID. Also, watch out for clauses that might let the management company reclaim concessions like discounted rent, if you move out before your lease term ends.

Understanding your lease terms thoroughly is crucial to avoid unexpected costs and to plan your move without any surprises that could put you over your moving budget.

Ensuring that your utilities and services like Wi-Fi and electricity are smoothly transferred to your new address beforehand can save you both time and money. It's important to contact your service providers in advance of your move to pre-arrange the start/stop dates for your services. Also, update your billing address and review your current plan for any potential upgrades or promotions—you might find a better deal than what you're currently paying for.

Keep in mind that your new apartment building might be tied to a specific service provider, meaning you may have to switch from your current provider, like Verizon, to another, such as Optimum. If you're moving into a newly constructed apartment complex, you might need to schedule a technician's visit to set up your service, which often comes with additional one-time fees for setup and equipment costs.

Handling these details ahead of time can ensure that you can enjoy your new New Jersey home as soon as you move in. Whether it's relaxing with your favorite streaming show or FaceTiming long-distance friends with a fast, reliable Wi-Fi connection, getting these essentials sorted in advance will help you settle in smoothly.

A day off to handle your move is essential. It lets you keep an eye on the process and ensures everything ends up where you want it. If you can, schedule your move for a weekday. You'll often save money and avoid the weekend rush when traffic is heavier and moving costs are higher. If weekdays don't work and you need to move on a Saturday, be prepared for more activity and increased prices. Sometimes the convenience of a weekend move justifies the expense and also gives you extra time to unpack and get comfortable in your new home.

For those considering a DIY move in NJ, diving into the details of rental trucks can significantly impact both cost and convenience. First, check if your rental agreement includes free mileage for local trips, since this can save you a lot of money. Also, consider a one-way rental option that allows you to drop off the truck at a location closer to your new home. This can save you hours of driving time in a state known for its dense traffic in some areas.

Remember that the total cost of your truck rental might also rise due to additional expenses such as fuel charges, tolls, extra mileage, or comprehensive insurance coverage. These costs can vary based on factors like the size of the truck, the duration of the rental, and the distance you're moving.

Driving a large rental truck in NJ also comes with its own challenges, especially if you're navigating hilly areas, maneuvering through narrow roads, or parking in tight spots. Being comfortable behind the wheel isn't for everyone, especially if you're not familiar with navigating New Jersey's jughandles—those unique left-turn routes that can add time to your trip.

Handling a DIY move in NJ requires thorough planning, including mapping out your driving route to avoid traffic and busy areas. Balance the potential savings against the time and effort needed to manage every detail of your move. Unless you're moving a short distance, hiring professional movers can be worth the investment and peace of mind.

If you're considering hiring professionals, we offer a seamless moving experience so you can relax and enjoy your new home without the stress of moving. With our transparent flat-fee pricing and accurate quotes, you can be confident there won't be any unexpected costs, especially with the time-based moves in NJ where traffic can cause significant delays.

Here's the key takeaway: the fewer items you have to move, the lower your moving costs will be. Take some time to sift through your belongings and bulky items. Think about donating items you no longer need to local thrift stores or charities. Alternatively, if you have the time, consider selling your higher value items on marketplace platforms like Facebook Marketplace, OfferUp, or Poshmark. You can potentially add some extra dollars to fund your moving budget.

Timing is everything when planning your move. If you have some flexibility, consider scheduling your NJ move for a midweek day like Tuesday or Wednesday. Weekends and month-ends are peak times for moving, which come with higher prices due to increased demand. Choosing a weekday can help you save money and give you a better chance of securing your ideal moving date and time. Plus, you'll have an easier time navigating New Jersey's roads without the heavy weekend traffic.

Instead of buying moving boxes, consider getting them for free from local New Jersey stores like grocery shops, bookstores, and retail outlets that often have extras. You can also find free boxes through community forums or apps like Nextdoor, which can help with both your budget and the environment. Plus, it's a great way to get acquainted with your new neighborhood.

Overall, when planning your NJ move it's important to factor in multiple costs. The total expense mainly depends on the size of your move, the distance, the timing, and any specific moving requirements you might have.

Whether you're transitioning to a chic apartment in Jersey City or a quaint home in Morristown, knowing your NJ moving costs is essential. With thorough planning and the support of a trusted moving partner like Piece of Cake Moving & Storage, we can ensure a smooth move for you.

NYC Movers”

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized.

They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

You've invested time and money into building your home gym. When it's time to move, it's worth taking the same amount of care with relocating your fitness machines and equipment.

Some people may be tempted to maneuver their gym equipment themselves; however, working with professional movers who have experience with moving home gyms can reduce the risk of damage to your gym equipment and injury that could leave you benched from your next workout.

Leave it to Piece of Cake Moving & Storage to make moving your home gym a no-sweat situation. Just give us a call and let us know what home gym items you need moved and we'll handle the heavy lifting from there. It's always a good idea to check in with us to discuss what machines and equipment from your home gym you need to move. Some larger items require an additional set of hands and a review of the manufacturer's assembly instructions.

You can breathe easy though, we are experienced at moving a wide variety of machines and equipment. It's important that you share as much information as possible about the equipment so Piece of Cake Moving & Storage can be prepared for your home gym move.

We have experience in moving the following home gym equipment:

We offer disassembly and assembly services just for this purpose depending on the machine and our experience. In addition to supplies, packing, and unpacking services, we've also got you covered when it comes to storage if you need to take a breather before you find your home gym's next home.

After these steps, we'll take the baton and pick up the pace to move your gym equipment. Our expert movers will then:

From there, we'll either get your home gym to the next location or if you're not ready for it in your space just yet, we'll store it for you. Storing your equipment with electronic components is a special concern, because they don't tolerate the ups and downs of temperature change well. Ensuring that the items can be stored in a climate controlled facility will ensure that they will be ready to use when you're done storing them.

By Digital Piece of Cake

At Piece of Cake Moving & Storage, we've mastered the art of how to get rid of a couch that needs to go. Whether you're downsizing apartments, refreshing your living room style, or making space for new furniture, getting rid of a couch can be a straightforward task. With our guide, this process can be easier and smoother than you might think.

So, you've decided it's time for your old couch to go. Maybe it's worn out and not worth moving, or maybe you've found a new sofa that better suits your style. Whatever the reason, there are numerous ways to part with your old couch that are responsible and beneficial. From donating and selling to recycling and upcycling, you can find the best solution to get rid of your couch.

First things first, let's think about donating. If your couch is still in good condition, there are plenty of places that would love to take it off your hands. Local charities, shelters, and thrift stores often accept furniture donations. Some organizations even offer free pickup services, depending on your location. It's a win-win: you get rid of the couch you don't want anymore so someone else can enjoy it.

Look into donating at these organizations in your local area:

Turning your old couch into extra cash is a smart move and it's a great way to offset the cost of a new one.

Where to Sell Your Couch

Couch Selling Tips

If you're feeling generous and just want the couch gone ASAP, consider giving it away for free. Post it on neighborhood apps like Nextdoor, OfferUp or local groups on Facebook Marketplace. You'd be surprised how quickly people jump at the chance to grab free furniture in good condition.

If your couch is in bad condition and you just need it gone, a junk removal service is your best bet. Junk removal companies can handle the heavy lifting and dispose of your couch properly, it just may come at a slight price.

For the environmentally conscious, recycling is a great option. Some cities have specific recycling programs for bulky items like furniture. Check with your local waste management or recycling center to see if they accept couches. They might even offer curbside pickup.

Couch Recycling Steps

Feeling crafty? Turn your old couch into something new! With a bit of creativity, you can transform your tired old sofa into a unique furniture piece. There are tons of DIY tutorials online to get those creative juices flowing.

Couch Upcycling Ideas

Some furniture companies offer buyback or recycling programs. If you purchased your couch from a well-known retailer, it's worth giving them a call to see if they have any take-back options. It's a lesser-known avenue but they may even give you a potential discount on a future purchase.

Lastly, check if your neighborhood has bulk pickup days. Many municipalities schedule specific days when they'll collect large items like furniture. It's usually as simple as putting your couch out on the curb and scheduling a pickup with your local waste management service.

Getting rid of a couch doesn't have to be a headache. Whether you choose to donate, sell, recycle, or upcycle, there are plenty of options to choose from to fit your needs.

And remember, if you're planning an upcoming relocation and need a hand moving, Piece of Cake Moving & Storage is here to help!

Page: COI Services | Piece of Cake Moving & Storage

Piece of Cake Moving is a fully insured moving company with extensive experience in obtaining Certificates Of Insurance (COI) for our New York City customers. Even with the most complex building management requirements we've got you covered – literally.

With us, your COI is already included in our competitive flat fee. We will also take care of the COI process. We will send you a COI Request which you can send to the building and then forward their response back to us. Our COI team will then send the appropriate certificate for your building to you, and to the building if their email address is provided in the sample.

If you are planning an NYC move, or are moving from or into an apartment building or condo, you most likely will need a Certificate of Insurance (COI). Property and building management companies in NYC require these certificates as proof that your moving company is insured so that they are not held liable for any damage that could happen during a move.

The COI is an exercise in detail, including the specific location you are moving to – or from – what is covered and how it should be used. Some buildings will want to see your COI before they approve your moving day and elevator booking. Choose a mover you can have confidence in, with the experience and commitment to ensuring it's done right.

1. Prior to planning your move contact your Building Management and confirm if they require a COI, ask if they have a template and what they require. You will need to contact both your move out and move in building management team.
2. Provide the received details and any additional information to your Piece of Cake Moving Consultant or our COI Department and authorize us to prepare your Insurance paperwork. Buildings can have their own preferred format for the COI and each one needs to be made out with specific details, like who it should be mailed to. This is the planning work that limits delays from corrections and changes that we will take care of for you.

3. We will ensure all requirements are met including: the minimum insurance value, the right timing to ensure it's finalized well before your move and we double check all the details and format of the COI so it's acceptable to your Building Management requirements.

4. We will also send your COI via email for your own records and confirm it's approved.

5. Your approved COI will insure you for any accidental building damage that may occur in your move, which means you are not out of pocket if that happens.

Most buildings in NYC need one in order to protect their property for damages. You can also check your move-in paperwork to see if one is required. Your building management team may provide you with a COI template that outlines the information they want included.

When you call us to schedule your move, make sure you mention that a COI is required but it will be one of our top questions when finalizing your booking (You will also receive a COI Request from your moving consultant after booking your job). This is one factor that can cause an unnecessary delay as your movers will not be allowed to enter the building on the day without it. Be proactive and find out if you need a COI to make sure the day goes off without a hitch.

As it's mentioned in the previous part, it's best to ask both of your building's property managements, just to avoid potential delays on the date of move.

Your COI has the following key information:

Piece of Cake movers are experienced professionals who are well trained in avoiding accidental property damage during a move, however sometimes mishaps do occur.

These incidents could be a scrape on a wall, or a mark on a floor. Once our movers see that damage has occurred, we take responsibility as a fully insured moving company.

Be assured we meet the minimum state requirements for liability so if there is any problem, you or your building manager can contact us and we will address it. We may choose to pay for repairs directly, or we might submit an insurance claim. Either way, we've got it covered.

There are a couple of steps to this process, and we will support you but first, you need to ask your building or property manager for the buildings you are leaving and moving into for a sample COI. There is usually one kept on hand in their office, but if they don't supply it, you can just get the details of the certificate holder with the address, and any additional entities insured.

This is when Piece of Cake can step in. Piece of Cake provides optimum services for you COI. We have them issued directly from our insurance company and we give a copy to our clients as well. Just in case, we'll arrive with a hard copy on moving day as well. We'll have all the bases covered, so there are no last minute hassles because this is not a negotiable area of your building management's policies.

If any mover quotes or charges you a fee to produce a COI, that is an obvious red flag that you may not be dealing with a reputable company. Most NY insurance companies do not charge the moving companies when COIs need to be produced. That means there is no cost to pass on to the customer.

One measure you can introduce to make extra sure your COI gets where it needs to go, is to request it be emailed to you. That way, if your building manager says they never received it, you have a copy to show.

The other thing you want to do is to double check the COI coverage amount. If a moving company's insurance doesn't cover the amount required for your building, that could also be a deal breaker on moving day.

Just say the word, or in this case, the 3 letters! Your Piece of Cake Moving Consultant will prompt you in an event, by asking if you need a COI and then will forward your details to our specialist COI department, who are dedicated solely to looking after COIs.

Contact your Building Management and confirm if they require a COI, ask if they have a template and what they require. As our COI request says, we need to obtain information about Certificate Holder (with address) and Additional Insured. We will ensure all requirements are met including: the minimum insurance value, the right timing to ensure it's finalized well before your move and we double check all the details and format of the COI so it's acceptable to your Building Management requirements.

There is absolutely no charge for a certificate of insurance.

There is no flexibility on this policy when it comes to building management requirements so you should always ask your building whether a moving company Certificate of Insurance is needed when you are planning your move. Ideally, Piece of Cake Moving would like to know whether a COI is needed at the time of booking, that way they can square away all your move details right away, and you'll have nothing to worry about leading up to move day!

If Piece of Cake is not made aware that a COI is necessary, the consequences can be costly. The crew could show up on move day only to have your building management refuse to let us in! The crew then has to wait around for the building, our COI department, and insurance company to sort out the certificate of insurance so they can come inside and begin the work. If they have another booking arranged immediately after yours, it may mean a rescheduling of your well planned relocation.

I was really so impressed with PoC. We only needed them to move one (large/heavy) piece of furniture from Brooklyn to Harlem. PoC's quote for this was substantially lower than another moving company I reached out to, and the whole experience was great. They got the job done quickly and professionally. Didn't bat an eye or miss a beat when it turned out the furniture wouldn't fit in our elevator and they had to disassemble and reassemble. Highly recommend and will absolutely be using them for our next larger move!

Briel Steinberg, New York City

HIGHLY recommend Piece of Cake Moving company! I contacted 6 companies to find the best to move my son from apartment to condo in Manhattan. I knew immediately I was going to use Piece of Cake because of their professionalism on the phone, ease of communication, rapid response to all communication, and their willingness to work with the price. The day of the move, the 2 gentleman movers were efficient, kind, and very responsible. Excellent company!

Tbr R., New York City

I booked with POC after my friends used them. POC was super accommodating and super speedy in response to every question I had. Onmove day, I was shocked how fast the movers worked! I've never seen anyone carry so many boxes so quickly. I moved from Harlem to Brooklyn and everything was packed in 30 mins. Everything moved to Brooklyn in an hour. I'm very happy with my move, nothing got damaged and the guys were super sweet! I def recommend and will be using them on my next move

India R., New York City

Made my move seamless. I had problema with my elevators in one building and with parking in another one and my movers went above and beyond to ensure my move was delivered safely and they were super polite. My team of movers spent the whole day with us and never complained or gave up. Everything was safely transported and installed. I highly recommend this service. 100/100. Will never use another company to move in NYC.

Andres Figueroa, New York City

I used Piece of Cake to move me from Long Island to Queens, and the process could not have been smoother. The two men worked very quickly to load my things, including a large and heavy antique, and everything arrived and was unpacked safely. They asked where I would like them to place each item, and made sure I was satisfied with the unpacking before they left. It was really a smooth process at a great price and I'll definitely be reaching out to them again for my next move.

Al J, New York City

It was truly a Piece of Cake. These guys arrived on time. These movers worked around the broken elevator, sometimes waiting for more than 10 minutes, for the working elevator to empty. They were patient, caring, and hardworking. They completed an entire 2 bedroom move in 4 hours, swiftly and efficiently. Everything was moved with care and precision. I cannot thank them enough for the great service. From the first time I spoke with a customer service representative to get a quote I knew I was in good hands.

Tania Suarez, New York City

Our move with PoC was so easy and the pricing was reasonable. The bins were delivered as promised and included zip ties to close the bins, labels and packing paper. On moving day, the movers arrived within the time period we were given, and they called immediately before they came. We had two very courteous movers who worked very efficiently. Our move with Piece of Cake was so much easier than moving by ourselves and the pricing was reasonable. Nothing was broken, the gentlemen couldn't have been nicer. Highly Recommend!!

Jennifer Palmerson, New York City

PoC was amazing in its logistics, professionalism & courtesy. On the day of my move, 3 gentlemen were extremely supportive, kind & patient with me as they saw that I am under medical care. They were prompt, cooperative & very time efficient workers. They had me packed & moved by the late afternoon! I would never hesitate to highly recommend this company to anyone that needs to move & need the great help that these company & its workers provided me with! Much continued success to you at PoC!

Flor de Maria Rubinos, New York City

When ever I used to think of any moving services before I used to get nightmares. First time I saw a moving company who treats their customers like a family and makes the whole moving experience pleasant. No doubt I will use Piece of Cake Moving services in future. Each and everyone in the company who works are A++

Mayu G, New York City

Deni, Sacha, and Nole were the BEST!! they helped us move from a high rise building in Columbus Circle to a walk up in Brooklyn and they were highly efficient, thoughtful about wrapping our furniture, and overall very nice people. This was a phenomenal moving experience!

JAMie Arias, New York City

Amazing service! My movers showed up earlier than expected and were very pleasant to speak with. They moved quickly and efficiently and were careful with my fragile boxes. Highly recommend! Emanuel and Sergio were very patient and gentle with my things and the tight spaces. The guys texted me an hour before their arrival, which gave me time to wrap up. I let them know that my father is high-risk and asked them to wear a mask and they politely obliged.

Natalia Arai, New York City

Website: mypieceofcakemove.com

My move with A piece of cake movers was just like their name, a piece of cake. The whole process was professional and extremely straight forward. No surprises or concerns. The movers were top notch. I recommend them with no reserves and will definitely use their service again.

Since the beginning of the COVID outbreak Piece of Cake Moving has taken extra measures to protect our customers and our staff through increased sanitization of our trucks and moving equipment.

All movers are also required to wear masks, gloves and wash their hands after every move with hand sanitizer.

We have also encouraged a COVID vaccine rollout in among our workforce. Our movers are distancing themselves from the customers throughout the moving day and respect personal space and any additional requests a customer may have during the move.

Piece of Cake was among the first moving companies in the USA to introduce contactless moving services. A contactless or contact free move is performed with minimal human contact during the physical process of your move.

Prior to the COVID 19 outbreak, the physical moving process (i.e. the stage after planning and booking) would typically involve frequent human contact during the pick up and drop off of your items, for example shaking hands and speaking within close distance.

With contactless moving, there is minimal to no human contact while our crew is at your old and new premises.

We continue to conduct all moves as contactless moves and also offer video monitoring options if you cannot be present. In these cases you will still need to have an authorized representative unlock and lock up your buildings during the move.

You or an authorized representative still need to review the itemized itinerary list (bill of lading) before your items are loaded or unloaded. This can be performed with social distancing between yourself and the movers during this step of the process, or via video call.

Here are some of the characteristics of a contact less move:

Virtual home estimates with a video walk through of your home

Phone call and text communication with your moving foreman during the move if you are in another room or have left the address during the move to practice social distancing

The option to leave the premise once you have allowed your movers into the pick up and drop off location, and to also review the itemized itinerary list (bill of lading) before your items are loaded or unloaded

Paperless moving – no pens needed to sign contracts, electronic contracts and payments

Movers who are wearing masks and gloves and practicing social distancing and hand sanitization during each customer move

Moving trucks that are cleaned and sanitized after every customer move

6 ft distancing between yourself and the movers

No hand shaking

We will pick up your items from your doorstep and deliver them to our secure NYC storage facility, where they will be safely stored for as little or as long as you like. Just let us know when you need your items back and we will drop them off at a time that suits you.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Great move with POC movers! I rented their pink bins which was an excellent choice, they provide plenty of packing paper, zip ties, and tags. My team arrived right at the start of their arrival window and quickly and safely packed all my bins and furniture into their truck. The team just as efficiently unloaded everything, leaving the bins in the labeled rooms and re assembling my bed frame. I definitely recommend renting their bins. I would definitely use Piece of Cake movers again and recommend them to a friend.

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

Just did my move from NYC to CT with Piece of Cake and had a fantastic experience. The process was smooth, courteous, and fast. Very friendly movers (Jozo and team) who worked hard and efficiently. They packed everything, dismantled only what was absolutely necessary and set it all up at the drop off location. I was thrilled having them as my movers and will definitely use them again in the future. Conclusion: If you have to move, congratulations, you found your crew. Book these guys and you will be happy.

In Staten Island, the first and last few days of each month are peak moving days, especially in spring and summer. This is because most new leases start at the beginning of the month. If you are able to, move in the middle of the month to ensure availability with our movers.

Both morning and afternoon moves are popular moving times in Staten Island. Mornings are in high demand at any time of year, as many people want to settle into their new home earlier. Another reason why morning moves are popular is that some elevator buildings typically don't let people move in after 5pm, making morning and afternoon moves a necessity.

Fridays and weekends are high-demand moving days as most people try to avoid taking too much time off work. Sunday can also be a cheaper move for walk up apartments and house moves since elevator buildings do not generally let people move in & out on a Sunday. If you can afford to take a day out of the office, the start of the week is always a more flexible time to move, from Monday to Wednesday.

As Staten Island best moving company, Piece of Cake Moving offers extensive moving services in Staten Island. No matter what you are moving or where you are moving it to, we've got you covered 24/7, 365 days a year. Services include:

Yes, Piece of Cake Moving offers short and long term storage services in Staten Island. Our On-Demand

Staten Island storage service is affordable and reliable. We will come to you, pick up your items, move them to our storage facility in NYC and deliver them back to you when you need them. Never visit a storage unit or have the hassle of moving your own items. Get a free storage quote HERE

The general rule of thumb is to base your tip on a percentage of your total move cost, and tipping 15% – 20% of your total cost is an industry average. We recommend a tiered approach depending on whether you're managing a large relocation, a medium sized move with some challenges or a small local move. In the end, if you can't afford a tip, good reviews on websites such as Yelp, Google and Facebook are much appreciated by your movers and go a long way in recognizing their hard work.

The only moving company in NYC that offers any day and time moving services. No matter how big or small your move is we will move it.

We specialize in local residential NYC and New York State moves. We can move you across all of New York City's Five Boroughs and surrounding Tri State locations.

From NYC to Miami, California and Seattle we can move you to any state in the USA. With on time long distance delivery dates and safe packing we will get you settled into your new home quickly.

We can move your office overnight, on the weekend and during holidays to minimize your downtime. With full office packing and unpacking, your staff will be up and running the next morning.

Need to move a few small items or moving out of a studio with minimal furniture? Do not lift a finger with our small move service.

Need to move urgently, our last minute moving service will save the day. We will get you into your new address asap! We also offer emergency packing and storage services.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you. They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them. Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work.

We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Great move with POC movers! I rented their pink bins which was an excellent choice, they provide plenty of packing paper, zip ties, and tags. My team arrived right at the start of their arrival window and quickly and safely packed all my bins and furniture into their truck. The team just as efficiently unloaded everything, leaving the bins in the labeled rooms and re assembling my bed frame. I definitely recommend renting their bins. I would definitely use Piece of Cake movers again and recommend them to a friend.

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

Just did my move from NYC to CT with Piece of Cake and had a fantastic experience. The process was smooth, courteous, and fast. Very friendly movers (Jozo and team) who worked hard and efficiently. They packed everything, dismantled only what was absolutely necessary and set it all up at the drop off location. I was thrilled having them as my movers and will definitely use them again in the future. Conclusion: If you have to move, congratulations, you found your crew. Book these guys and you will be happy.

Piece of Cake Movers moved me from the Financial District to the Hudson Valley in June 2022. It was absolutely flawless. The two men that worked the move were polite, careful, efficient and knowledgeable. Not a scratch on anything including the brand new apartment I moved into. They were focused and diligent. In Manhattan the logistics are more complicated yet Piece of Cake rose to the occasion in every way. What's more, the moving fee was very reasonable and there were no hidden charges, no surprises.

James B., New York

My partner and I were moving from NYC to Boston and after reading great reviews and having great communication with Piece of Cake, we wanted to give them our business. Throughout the process they were easy to work with, communicative and reliable. The moving team arrived within our window and worked really hard to get us out and into our apartments. If you're looking for a short move or long distance move, Piece of Cake is your moving Company!

Veronica Falborn, New York to Massachusetts

We did our recent long distance move from NYC to TN and Piece of Cake was an excellent choice for our move. The only damage that occurred was a scratch on one of our dining chairs. We were SO happy that our treasured items, exercise bike and furniture arrived in beautiful condition with NO dishes, cups, glasses, pictures or decor items broken or damaged. We would HIGHLY recommend Piece of Cake moving for your moving needs!

Chelsea Fuller Brown, New York to Tennessee

I used Piece of Cake to move from FL to CT and it was the best decision I've made! They were very responsive and able to accommodate a few things I had to change last minute! They were super early, all the staff was helpful, nice, communicative, very efficient and careful with all our belongings. We are extremely happy with their service and would recommend Piece of Cake to everyone! Thank you for making our move smooth and easy!

Andreina Tuccella, Florida to California

I've moved countless times in my life, and I've never had such a painless experience with movers. They were so organized ahead of time, double and triple checking the inventory. There were no price surprises on move day. And the move was surprisingly reasonable for a move from NYC to Baltimore. Would absolutely recommend!

Joseph C., NYC to Baltimore

Leaving my childhood home in New York City to move to Miami was not easy. Neither was finding a mover. After interviewing four others, the choice was quite simple after speaking to Piece Of Cake. Professional, compassionate, affordable and accommodating are just a few of the accolades I could assign them!

Everything was delivered to my new home a few days ago by an expert crew that even helped assemble larger items. It truly doesn't get better than this! Milo and his team deserve nothing but my heartfelt thanks!

Cynthia DeMonte, New York to Florida

Excellent service!! Our team packed up quickly and efficiently. They were also very nice and respectful. We moved from NY to NC and the movers met us the next morning to unload all of our belongings. I thought everything was fairly priced true to the quote. I did not get any last minute charges. Nothing broke during the move. The team was very good! Piece of cake made everything very easy from booking through the actual move. I would highly recommend using this company!!

Erica Davis, New York to North Carolina

Easiest moving experience ever. I had packed all my boxes myself, and the two guys came and loaded everything in 45 or so minutes. They wrapped my paintings and all of my fragile items and desk that I forgot to include in my inventory. The guys were very efficient, polite, and professional. They drove my belongings from NYC to Maryland and unpacked everything, and my parents had only good things to say of their experience with them as well. I will recommend Piece of Cake moving to friends & family!

Katie B, New York to Maryland

My daughter was moving from CT to NYC. She did not have many items as she was going to a studio apartment. It was too small of a job for the larger movers and we did not want to drive a uhaul ourselves into the city. A friend recommended Piece of Cake and from the first call through move in, they were wonderful! The pricing was amazing and the movers were outstanding. It was a flawless move. Thank you

Kori Gauvin- Eagle, Connecticut to New York

If I could leave six stars for PoC, I would. Moving isn't easy, especially when you've got multiple stops to make and state lines to cross. But I can't speak highly enough of Heidi who scheduled the move; she was so responsive, flexible, and kind. And Deni and Noble, who did the move, worked for nearly 16 hours (on the eve of Deni's birthday no less) with care, thoughtfulness and humor. I've worked with several moving companies before, and never experienced anything that compared. These folks really are the best.

Veyom B.,New York

I've moved 4 times within the last 6 years and PoC moving was the best movers I've ever used. While they are a little pricey, they were very worth it for the longer distance I was moving. They facetimed me to get an accurate quote and were very responsive. I filled out all the information and when the movers came, they disassembled and reassembled my bed, dresser and couch.They wrapped everything so nicely. This seamless experience made my move so much easier and I would highly recommend them.

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there. They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebonojo, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MAria Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

Just did my move from NYC to CT with Piece of Cake and had a fantastic experience. The process was smooth, courteous, and fast. Very friendly movers (Jozo and team) who worked hard and efficiently. They packed everything, dismantled only what was absolutely necessary and set it all up at the drop off location. I was thrilled having them as my movers and will definitely use them again in the future. Conclusion: If you have to move, congratulations, you found your crew. Book these guys and you will be happy.

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MARIA Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

By Digital Piece of Cake

At Piece of Cake Moving & Storage, we're here to simplify your move as the top-rated Connecticut movers with straightforward flat-fee pricing. Whether you're settling into a charming home in New Haven or a coastal summer home in Greenwich, we're ready to help you manage your Connecticut moving costs smoothly and confidently. Before you even begin packing, costs like packing materials and additional services can start to accumulate. If you're also considering a more comprehensive option, like a full-service white-glove move, it's especially important to get a clear handle on your budget early on.

Here's what we'll cover in this guide to help you accurately estimate your Connecticut moving costs:

For local Connecticut moves, costs can change depending on the size of your home and other factors. Typically, local moves in Connecticut average around $1,000, but the cost can range from as low as $500 for a studio apartment and up to $1,900 for a large home.

Average 2024 Connecticut Local Moving Costs by Size

Connecticut Long-distance Moves

Out-of-state moves from Connecticut to another state typically cost around $2,200, though the final cost depends on the distance between locations and volume of items. Factors like fuel prices, tolls, and expedited delivery services can also affect the total cost.

Specialty Items or Services

When you're planning a move in Connecticut, don't forget to give extra attention to those special items that require more than just quick disassembly and a box of packing peanuts. High-value items like artwork, antiques, or bulky items like gym equipment, pool tables, or pianos need proper packaging and special handling. Be sure to inform your Connecticut movers about any specialized items to get an accurate moving cost estimate. Some specialized items may require custom crating or even climate-controlled transportation.

For example, if you're moving a hot tub, your Connecticut moving company will need to bring in a team with the right expertise and equipment. Professionals know how to safely handle bulky items and navigate tight spaces without causing damage to your home or the item itself. Then securing the item for transport requires skill and experience, which will be reflected in the moving cost.

If you're considering extras like full-value insurance or a white-glove moving service, these options will add to your expenses, but the peace of mind they offer may be worth it, especially when you're moving with a lot of luxury possessions and valuable items. Ultimately, it's about balancing the services you need with the cost you're comfortable paying to ensure your belongings are in good hands.

In Connecticut's real estate market, you can find cozy studio or one-bedroom condos in urban areas like Bridgeport to sprawling estates nestled in the suburbs of Fairfield County. When it comes to moving, smaller spaces have its perks since fewer belongings have lower moving costs.

Managing a Connecticut move for smaller apartments or studios typically requires two movers, with costs averaging around $500 for a studio move and $800 for a one-bedroom. But moves aren't just about packing and unpacking—there are unique challenges handled by Connecticut movers like navigating the narrow streets of historic towns like Wethersfield or Mystic, or finding parking in busy areas like downtown Hartford or Stamford. These factors can add an extra layer of complexity.

Some buildings also have strict HOA regulations or require specific move-in/out times, which add to the planning and logistics of moving. In most luxury buildings, you'll need to supply a certificate of insurance (COI) before reserving service elevators, which may have limited availability, especially during peak moving seasons. Always check with your building management for their requirements and ensure your Connecticut movers can provide the necessary COI paperwork. At Piece of Cake Moving, we take care of all your COI requirements at no extra cost, so you have one less thing to coordinate.

Connecticut Multi-room Moves

In Connecticut, larger homes often come with features like home offices, personal gyms, or spacious walk-in closets, all of which increase the cost of your move. Whether you're upgrading to a bigger suburban house or downsizing to a cozier home, managing the logistics of moving and finding storage solutions if needed can be tricky, especially if you're short on time.

Managing a Connecticut move for smaller apartments or studios typically requires two movers, with costs averaging around $500 for a studio move and $800 for a one-bedroom. But moves aren't just about packing and unpacking—there are unique challenges handled by Connecticut movers like navigating the narrow streets of historic towns like Wethersfield or Mystic, or finding parking in busy areas like downtown Hartford or Stamford. These factors can add an extra layer of complexity.

Some buildings also have strict HOA regulations or require specific move-in/out times, which add to the planning and logistics of moving. In most luxury buildings, you'll need to supply a certificate of insurance (COI) before reserving service elevators, which may have limited availability, especially during peak moving seasons. Always check with your building management for their requirements and ensure your Connecticut movers can provide the necessary COI paperwork. At Piece of Cake Moving, we take care of all your COI requirements at no extra cost, so you have one less thing to coordinate.

In Connecticut, larger homes often come with features like home offices, personal gyms, or spacious walk-in closets, all of which increase the cost of your move. Whether you're upgrading to a bigger suburban house or downsizing to a cozier home, managing the logistics of moving and finding storage solutions if needed can be tricky, especially if you're short on time.

For these larger moves, it's common to need a team of 3 or more professional Connecticut movers. The complexity can also rise if your home is in a densely populated downtown or historic area. Factors that affect your moving cost include the layout of your home, whether you have elevator access or stairs, and any handling of specialty items.

When requesting quotes from Connecticut moving companies, be sure to provide detailed information on the amount of belongings you have and any specifics about your residence. Things like the time, day, and season of your move, along with extra services like packing or storage, will also influence your final Connecticut moving cost.

Packing Supplies

In Connecticut, even moving from a studio apartment can cost $150-$200 just for quality packing materials to ensure your items are protected and secure, especially fragile items like glassware and dishes. For example, a typical three-shelf bookcase usually requires three medium-sized boxes—one for each shelf. Using simple calculations like this can help you better estimate just how many boxes you'll need.

To save on packing supply costs, you can consider sourcing sturdy boxes from local stores or reusing boxes from neighbors. For a more eco-friendly and budget-friendly option, you can use plastic moving bin rentals. These bins typically cost between $50-$100 for a set of 20 for a week. They're durable, waterproof, and stack neatly, making them a great choice if you want to cut down on box waste and go green. Just keep in mind that if you like to take your time unpacking, these bins are rented by the week, so costs can add up if you keep them longer than anticipated.

Housing Application Fees

In Connecticut, finding a rental can come with its fair share of challenges. Whether you're considering a modern apartment in Norwalk or a historic home in Guilford, the rental process often includes non-refundable fees. You can expect to pay around $50 for credit checks and anywhere from $100 to $150 in application fees for some properties.

As you budget for your move, make sure to account for these upfront costs. They can add up faster than you expect and can throw off your moving budget if you're not prepared.

Lease Terms

In Connecticut's rental market, it's important to carefully review your lease, particularly the notice period required if you're planning to move out or not renew your lease. While a 30-day notice was once the norm, some leases now require 60 days' notice, a shift that has become more common in recent years. Be mindful of any clauses that allow management to revoke concessions, like a rent discount, if you leave before your lease is up.

Having a clear understanding of your lease terms is essential to avoid unexpected fees and to ensure your move goes smoothly without any surprises that can put a strain on your budget.

Connections & Utilities

Making sure your utilities and services, especially Wi-Fi, are set up at your new place before moving day can save you time and make all the difference. Reach out to your service providers ahead of your move to arrange start and stop dates, and remember to update your billing address. It's also a good idea to review your current plan for any potential upgrades or promotions—there might be a better subscription deal than what you're paying now.

Keep in mind, some apartment buildings in Connecticut may have contracts with specific service providers, meaning you may need to switch from your current provider to another service provider like Frontier or Optimum. And if you're the first tenant moving into a brand-new building or unit, you will likely have to schedule a technician to set up your service, which comes with its own one-time fees for installation and equipment.

Getting these details sorted ahead of time is a good idea to make sure you can settle into your new home from day one. Whether it's kicking back with your favorite streaming show or listening to music on your smart home devices, having your services like home internet ready to go will help you feel right at home.

Your Time & Effort

Taking a day off or two for your move is a smart move. It allows you to oversee the whole process and make sure everything gets placed where you want it. If possible, try to schedule your move on a weekday. You'll be able to save money and avoid the weekend rush when traffic is heavier, demand is higher, and moving rates tend to spike. If a weekday isn't an option and you need to move on a Saturday, be ready for a busier day and higher moving costs. But sometimes the extra convenience of a weekend move is worth the added expense, and it gives you a little more time to unpack and settle into your new home before diving into the next week.

DIY Move

If you're thinking about handling a DIY move in Connecticut, getting familiar with the ins and outs of rental trucks make all the difference in both cost and convenience. First, check if your rental includes free mileage for local trips, which can save you a chunk of change. You may also want to consider a one-way rental, which means you can return the rental truck at a location closer to your new place. This can save you valuable time, especially in areas of Connecticut known for heavy traffic.

Keep in mind, though, that the total cost of a rental truck can increase due to extra charges like fuel, tolls, additional mileage, or insurance. These costs can vary depending on the truck size, how long you need it, and the distance of your move.

Driving a big truck around Connecticut has its own set of challenges, too, particularly if you're dealing with hilly terrains in Connecticut's northwest corner, narrow roads, or tight parking spots. If you're not comfortable handling a large vehicle, the drive could be more stress than you bargained for.

Planning is key for a DIY move. Be sure to map out your route to avoid traffic jams and busy areas. Weigh the savings against the time and effort of managing every detail of a DIY move. For longer and more complex moves, hiring professional Connecticut movers are often worth it for the ease and peace of mind.

If you're leaning toward hiring Connecticut movers, we offer a smooth and seamless moving experience, so you can settle into your new home and relax. With our transparent flat-fee pricing and accurate moving cost quotes, you won't be hit with any surprises—especially in Connecticut, where traffic delays can significantly impact time-based hourly moves.

Tips for Reducing Connecticut Moving Costs

Declutter before moving

Off-peak moving times

Gather free packing materials

Declutter Before Moving

Take some time to go through your belongings and larger items, furniture, and appliances. Consider donating what you no longer need to local thrift shops or charities. If you have plenty of high-value items and the time to spare, you can also sell them on platforms like Facebook Marketplace, OfferUp, or Poshmark to add a little extra cash to your moving budget. The bottom line is simple: moving less items means lower moving costs.

Off-Peak Moving Times

When it comes to planning your move, timing can make a big difference. If you have some flexibility, think about scheduling your move for a midweek day like Tuesday or Wednesday. Moving on weekends or at the end or beginning of the month tends to be more expensive because that's when most people are booking Connecticut movers. Opting for a weekday can save you money and increase your chances of locking in your preferred moving time. Plus, you'll avoid the heavier weekend traffic that can slow things down.

Gather Free Packing Materials

Instead of buying moving boxes, consider checking for free recycled supply boxes from local stores like grocery shops, bookstores, bookstores, or retailers. You can also check community forums or apps like Nextdoor to find free boxes from nearby neighbors, which not only helps your budget but is also a win for the environment.

As you plan your Connecticut moving costs for 2024 and beyond, remember to factor in all these various expenses. Whether you're moving into a stylish apartment in Milford or a spacious home in West Hartford, having a clear understanding of your Connecticut moving costs is key. The overall cost will largely depend on the size of your move, the distance, the timing, and any special moving requirements you have.

The big day is here. We've brought together our 13 top tips from extensive experience moving thousands of our clients to help give you a hassle-free experience.

Moving Day flies by faster than a normal day. Whatever time you're estimating to get final tasks before our team gets there – double it. This means getting up early to squeeze in a coffee, see the kids off to school or a sitter and securing pets or leaving them with a neighbour so they're not running out the door while furniture's carried out. We recommend keeping a notepad and pen handy for any final reminders.

We all keep some items handy for the last night – toothbrushes, cell phone chargers, hand wash, medication, toilet paper, pillows and blankets. These are the transitional items you will need at the other end immediately so keep them together and make sure you have identified boxes or suitcases in advance to take them with you. (If not, a few extra boxes is an option your moving team is prepared for). Once you've packed all these away, store your suitcase somewhere secure while your home is open and ensure it's kept separate from items being loaded onto the truck.

Milk left in the fridge? Do a final check of the kitchen, bathroom and each bedroom and sweep around them before the truck arrives. The paper towels and surface spray you use for your final clean are also going to come in very handy when you arrive at the other end, so be sure to pack them when you're done. Keep that mop handy for one final sweep when our team leaves. We know some Supers who raise the lid on old style stoves and check under the hotplates, so it's worth giving this a once over if you haven't already. Renters tip: we recommend keeping a cream cleaner and sponge eraser handy for any spot cleaning on walls or doorways where marks are more evident after a property is cleared of boxes.

Leave a note with your forwarding address for mail for the new owner and the super if you haven't arranged it through the Post Service. The same applies to utilities. If you haven't notified them yet, make a note to follow up asap. If you plan to leave a tip for your moving team, double check you have some cash or step out to an ATM to make a withdrawal before they arrive.

Your team of movers will let you know when they're on their way to your property so be sure your ring volume is on and keep your phone handy. If you have a portable charger for your cell phone, today is a good day to keep it close. Check the street to see conditions and notify them of any changes.

Go over any key pieces of information together. In a doorman building? Have a hyper vigilant Co-Op? Or is there a service entry the team needs to use? Our removalists are seasoned experts but no one knows your property like you do. Stay close-by for any trouble shooting and any questions on arrival. We'll walk through the plan together once we're inside your property and make sure we're all on the same page. You'll check the inventory list and sign it with your team. Vigilant supers often like to drop by during a move and see how it's progressing, so keep an ear out for any questions they might raise which your movers can't answer.

At this point, all you need to do is let us do the heavy lifting, literally. This is where we really shine. Don't be afraid to ask any questions or make any suggestions, we are here for you on your move day. Our goal is to see you smiling and looking forward to this big change in your life. You'll also get a call from our Customer Success team during this part of the process and can ask us any additional questions or just get a pep talk.

As we get closer to finishing loading the truck you might want to consider giving anyone meeting you at your destination a heads up that you'll be on the move soon. If someone is meeting you at your new property with the keys, be sure to confirm your meeting time is locked in. Then double check you have the cell phone details of your removalist team in case you have any traffic issues or unexpected delays along the way.

Lock windows and doors. Do that final sweep that means no delays to having your bond returned. Leave the keys behind as per your arrangement with the landlord or building. Renters tip: take photographs of the condition of each room before you leave.

We're on the home stretch but your removalists have the same arrival and entry process at this end of things. Once you've facilitated entry, they'll be working with you on where to leave your boxes and furniture while they are unloading. Renters tip: take condition photographs for your records and identify any issues to document with your building management.

Hot water, electricity, and wifi are essentials for making sure your first night is stress-free. Check these on arrival and jump on the phone if you need to make any changes. This is also a good time to check if the property is secure for the arrival of any young children or pets, i.e check fencing, gates, windows and access points.

Once your removalists have finished unloading the truck they'll do a final walk through with you and make sure everything's in place. If you're using Piece of Cake for your move, one of the senior members of the company's Executive Team will jump on a call with you and make sure there's nothing else we can do to help. Then you can sign off on the completion paperwork and tip your team if you're happy with their work.

An initial mop and clean is a great start but let's face it, those boxes are going to take a while. Instead we recommend setting up the bedrooms as a priority and wiping down the surfaces in your kitchen and bathroom so you can start using those spaces. While there's a big task ahead, your suitcase of essentials including phone chargers and medicines will ensure the basics are under control. The first few days are a little unorganized as you try to find everything you need so go easy on yourself. If there are any change of address arrangements you still need to make (see our Moving Day checklist here for advice) make a note to get them done as soon as possible including financial institutions, your licence and registration, the Postal Service and subscriptions. It won't be long before everything's running like clockwork, try and enjoy what we call the 'camping phase'.

Also consider what you want to move, what you want to donate and what items you want to put into storage. If you want to donate or dispose of items begin that process asap and take a look at our guide with useful tips and charities. But you don't want to leave that until your move day, plan a spring clean well in advance. Your moving company will run through all of your items you wish to move when they quote you. It is important to know what is coming with you.

To find the perfect mover you need to ask the right questions.

We recommend you ask any potential moving company the following questions:

Your quote should clearly indicate all of your line item charges and any additional fees that could occur during your move. Do not be fooled by cheap quotes, often those moving companies will add additional fees throughout the move which often can add up to more than your other quotes and can leave you with a negative experience.

We also recommend you look for a moving company with a culture that's based on safety and customer service. You'll note they train and support their movers to ensure they meet high industry standards, which means they are efficient and professional in their approach and make you feel comfortable to have them in your home.

When your moving day and time locked in you can fast track these key steps:

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there.

They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebonojo, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MARIA Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

This was my 4th time using Piece of Cake and I have recommended them to so many people already. I recommended them to One person I know who is moving to Colorado in the spring. She said she read the reviews on instagram and they were too good to be true. IT IS TRUE. They are prompt, gives you an accurate quote based on what you tell them, careful packing your valuables & very nice. I used them twice for interstate moving. Just tip well and it will pay off for you because they are the only company I will ever use for moving.

The movers were on time/early to pick up the everything, and were efficient in packaging all the furniture. My only complaint is on the management side. I was told storage for less than a month was free, and was then charged immediately for a month of storage. I was then told upon everything being moved out of storage all money would be refunded to me. It took almost a month for the money to be refunded, due to an e-mail sent to the wrong person. I do not understand why this was not an automated process.

Well I have to say normally I'm not used to writing reviews but this time I feel like I must do. I was a little anxious because I was moving from Miami to Orlando so that was a big move for me but I have to say everything went so smoothly that I didn't even believe it. They were on time, the guys were very professional and did an excellent job moving my stuff, I'll definitely recommend them with all my friends. Thank you again for your amazing service.

I highly recommend Piece Of Cake Moving & Storage. The Company and all of the employees that I encountered were helpful, professional, friendly, and efficient. I moved from N.Y. to Florida and used Piece Of Cake for both moves (NYC to Florida into a storage unit and from the storage unit to my temporary condo). I'll be calling them again for my third move from my temporary condo into my permanent condo. All of belongings were accounted for, no damage to anything, and very reasonable pricing. I'm very happy with my experience with Piece Of Cake Moving & Storage.

I have moved a lot over the last 10 years and it is always a pain. This was not. Like not at all. Courteous, communicative, I didn't feel like I was going to get upcharged or deal with a last minute haggle. I probably won't ever use another company as long as I am around these guys. From the Sales Team to the Movers, our experience with Piece of Cake Moving was exceptional! The Sales Team was very informative about the process and answered any questions we had in a timely fashion. The day of the move, the Moving Team was there early and took care of everything! They wrapped, disassembled and packed all items with care. They were courteous, friendly and explained what they were doing from beginning to end. At the destination, they again handled the move with care and reassembled everything and were willing to reposition items when we requested. The city has as many moving companies as it does residents, and I did a lot of homework to try and find the best fit. My move from Brooklyn to Philly was a success - thanks to Piece of Cake. A very professional performance from initial booking to the actual move and delivery. I rated it first class. My move was very seamless with piece of cake. They took care to wrap all my furniture and were careful with my large mirror and dresser. One of the movers had to leave half way into moving things into my new apartment - which was a 3rd floor walk-up (because of health problems). But the guy that remained was very professional and did his best to finish carrying everything up in time.

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there. They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebonojo, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MARIA Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

I had a last minute move, and they were able to accommodate me. They were very friendly on the phone. My move time was 9am and they came around 8:30am, they called before they came up to my apt to ensure I was ready. I moved the majority of my things in to storage. Very quick, efficient and gentile with boxes. Nice and pleasant movers.

Sima P. New York, NY

I had to make an emergency trip overseas and had to manage my entire move remotely. It was all perfectly and seamlessly executed. Easy to use online payments. Quite elated that I found these guys. Can vouch for them even in my sleep! Thank you guys!!

Shay T. Hoboken, NJ

Piece of Cake was very friendly, efficient, and easy to use. They were amazing and will definitely use again!

Samantha New York, NY

Efficient and accommodating. There was a mix up with a mover I had previously scheduled and I contacted piece of cake at the absolute last minute. Excellent people and company!

Nick N. Whitestone, Queens, NY

I called them one day before I had to move. They showed up early and made the move a breeze.

George W. New York, NY

I reached out to Piece of Cake about 5 days before our move. The movers arrived on time and worked very efficiently. Nothing was dented or broken in the move. I was so impressed with this company from start to finish, highly recommend!

Lee Ann C. RIDGEWOOD, NY

I booked piece of cake moving about 36 hrs before my move and they were beyond accommodating. The guys were smiling the entire time and were so efficient loading up the truck. They even read the labels on my boxes and put everything in the appropriate rooms in my new apartment. It was the best and fastest moving experience.

Vivian O. New York, NY

Awesome. Last minute call and they showed up did the work and were extremely professional and reasonably priced

Jenny F. New York, NY

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on

The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you. They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them. Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST

SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

In Brooklyn, the first and last few days of each month are peak moving days, especially in spring and summer. This is because most new leases start at the beginning of the month. If you are able to, move in the middle of the month to ensure availability with our movers.

Both morning and afternoon moves are popular moving times in Brooklyn. Mornings are in high demand at any time of year, as many people want to settle into their new home earlier. Another reason why morning moves are popular is that some elevator buildings typically don't let people move in after 5pm, making morning and afternoon moves a necessity.

Fridays and weekends are high-demand moving days as most people try to avoid taking too much time off work. Sunday can also be a cheaper move for walk up apartments and house moves since elevator buildings do not generally let people move in & out on a Sunday. If you can afford to take a day out of the office, the start of the week is always a more flexible time to move, from Monday to Wednesday.

As Brooklyn's best moving company, Piece of Cake Moving offers extensive moving services in Manhattan. No matter what you are moving or where you are moving it to, we've got you covered 24/7, 365 days a year.

Services include:

The general rule of thumb is to base your tip on a percentage of your total move cost, and tipping 15% – 20% of your total cost is an industry average. We recommend a tiered approach depending on whether you're managing a large relocation, a medium sized move with some challenges or a small local move. In the end, if you can't afford a tip, good reviews on websites such as Yelp, Google and Facebook are much appreciated by your movers and go a long way in recognizing their hard work.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Piece of Cake is the Official Moving Partner of the New York Knicks Read More

Enter your items into our free moving calculator for a flat fee price quote.

Relocating can be an exciting yet daunting task, with one of the most critical aspects being the moving expenses involved. Whether you're moving across town or across the country, understanding how a moving cost calculator works and how moving expenses are estimated can help you budget effectively and avoid surprises so you can navigate your next move with confidence and ease. Use Piece of Cake's free moving cost calculator above to instantly see your flat moving fee online. Check out our helpful guide on how your moving fee is calculated, as well as useful tips to help save on your next move.

The cost of hiring professional movers can vary depending on the size of your home, the distance between locations, and any additional services or fees. When choosing professional movers, you'll generally encounter two main pricing models that are the basis for moving rate calculators: hourly rates and flat-fee rates.

Inventory-based calculation: volume of goods + mileage + any special complexities = estimate

Both pricing models require providing as much detailed information as possible about your move to avoid surprises. For hourly rates, factors like traffic and weather can impact the final cost, so it's crucial to discuss potential issues and minimum charges upfront. For a flat-fee move, ensuring all items are accounted for in the inventory is key to avoiding last-minute adjustments to the quote.

For a local move, the moving fee calculator depends on whether you opt for an hourly rate or flat-fee pricing. These costs are influenced by several factors, including the volume of items, the moving date, and any additional services like packing or special handling for bulky items.

Average moving expenses of a long-distance move are higher than a local move due to factors like the total distance, the volume or weight of the shipment, and additional services such as packing, insurance, or storage. On average, a long-distance move might cost around $3,000+, based on a medium-sized move and a distance of 1,000 miles. This estimate is a baseline that can vary widely depending on the specifics of the move, such as the exact distance, the volume of belongings, and whether you opt for full-service moving options that include packing and unpacking services.

A moving cost calculator involves key factors to ensure you budget accurately for your move. Start by determining the type of move—local or long-distance—and doing an inventory of all your possessions. You should also account for additional services you may need, such as packing and unpacking, handling for specialty items, and storage if there's a gap between move-out and move-in dates or if you're downsizing. Remember to factor in costs for packing supplies and insurance to protect your belongings during transit.

You can use our online moving cost calculator to get an instant quote. Feel free to ask us for a detailed breakdown of the moving expenses or how we can help with services like our white-glove Platinum Packing Experience.

Understanding the factors that affect moving expenses are essential to plan and accurately budget for your move. Here's a comprehensive list to help you navigate through the various scenarios and elements that can impact the final price of your move.

Relocating doesn't have to break the bank. With smart planning, strategic choices, and in using a moving fee calculator, you can significantly reduce your moving expenses. Here are tips for a budget-friendly move:

Our moving fee calculator is accurate and does not lead to unwanted moving expenses. We provide you with the option to select every room in your house, as well as every furniture and household item to see your flat moving fee. Our team of moving consultants will also be in touch to confirm your moving fee to confirm accuracy of your quote.

For modestly sized apartments using professional movers typically costs between $400-$750 for local relocations. This price can increase to $600-$1200 for one-bedroom units with more furnishings. Larger moves, such as 2–3-bedroom apartments, might cost between $1,000 and over $2,000, depending on the amount and type of items. Moves involving 3–4-bedroom households could range from $1,500 to $3,500 for a local move. Keep in mind there are factors that impact each price including the day of the week, month, packing services, distance between locations, stairs and handling needs.

We make it a priority to reach out to each customer beforehand to ensure the inventory list is comprehensive and current. This proactive approach is designed to eliminate any unexpected or additional moving expenses on the day of the move. If there are last-minute items, you can call our Call Center with your reference number and we will be able to update your quote to reflect the changes in your inventory.

To save on moving costs, timing is everything. The off-peak winter season, from around October to April, is generally the cheapest time to move due to lower demand and better deals from moving companies. November and December are great moving months, since business usually slows down due to the holidays and cold weather. Planning your move on a weekday, ideally Monday through Thursday, can also lower your moving expenses since weekends are peak times for moving companies. Also, starting early in the morning not only helps avoid traffic and the midday heat but it can also maximize the speed of the moving process, especially if your movers charge by the hour.

Booking your movers at least 4 weeks in advance is ideal to give you the best chance to secure the services you need and when you need them, especially during the busy summer months. If you're up against the clock, aim for at least a 2-week lead time to avoid being stuck with limited options. Early booking not only secures a slot with your preferred movers but also offers potential lower moving expenses and a better opportunity to compare services and costs.

Moving in or out of buildings with stairs adds complexity and cost to the relocation process. Factors affecting these moving expenses include the number of floors to walk up/down, the type and number of items being moved, and the necessary equipment needed. Additional charges may apply based on the distance movers must carry items to the truck. Reputable companies like Piece of Cake Moving & Storage will communicate these potential extra charges upfront to help you effectively budget for your move.

Depending on the size of the move, the moving crew will consist of a 2-, 3-, 4- or 5-man crew. For a one—two bedroom apartment, a 3-man crew is the most common. We also send crew with more members upon request.

Tipping movers is a common practice to show appreciation for their hard work. It's not required but it is recommended. A general guideline is tipping between 15% to 20% of the total move cost, with discretionary adjustments for the move's size and complexity. For substantial relocations, it's recommended to consider tipping towards the higher end of this range.

Moving companies typically offer boxes for a fee or include them as part of their service packages. Discuss with your moving company what types of boxes are provided and which ones might incur additional costs. The number and kind of boxes you'll need depend on the volume and type of items you're moving.

Our standard moving service includes complimentary boxes for your hanging clothes, TVs, mirrors, and picture frames, and standard-sized boxes for packing up everything else. You can also upgrade to our full packing package, which is comprehensive of packing supplies and services, so you can relax while we do all the heavy lifting.

Plastic bins offer durability, stackability, moisture and dust protection, and are eco-friendly if reused or rented. They also allow for quick access to belongings and might be more cost-effective than purchasing new cardboard boxes, as they don't require packing tape. Piece of Cake Moving & Storage provides both options, allowing you to select the best container type for your move.

Hiring movers from online classifieds like Craigslist can be tempting due to low costs and convenience, but risks include possibly dealing with unlicensed or uninsured operators with professional experience and equipment, which can lead to potential damage or injury. It's crucial to verify their insurance, DOT registration, and customer reviews.

Before committing to a moving company, it's wise to perform a quick check to ensure their reliability. All movers must be registered with the United States Department of Transportation (USDOT) and typically display their USDOT number on their website. You can use this number to check their registration status, fleet size, and compliance details via the FMCSA website's search tool.

The weather can definitely throw a wrench in your moving plans. Things like heavy rain, snow, or floods can make a moving day more challenging, from slowing down loading and unloading, to affecting driving speeds and how safe it is to be on the road, especially in heavy snow conditions and freezing temperatures. Plus, if you're paying by the hour, this kind of weather could mean more time spent on the move, which would

No matter the weather on your moving day—rain or shine—rest assured, our team is ready and equipped. We come with protective gear like waterproof covers and our trained movers ensure your move goes safe and smooth, regardless of the forecast.

Movers are typically restricted from transporting hazardous materials (like paint, chemicals, or flammable items), perishables, plants, and pets. When in doubt, ask your mover about any items they are unable to move to ensure a smooth process.

Before filing your next tax return, consult with a tax advisor as some states still allow deductions for moving expenses despite the federal suspension from 2018 to 2025. Specific states, including New York, New Jersey, and California, offer state tax breaks for moving expenses under certain conditions.

Common moving terms people are often unfamiliar with include “Bill of Lading,” which is the contract between you and the moving company; “Tariff,” detailing the company’s rates and services; “Binding/Non-Binding Estimate,” which refers to whether the quoted price can change; and “Flight Charge,” an additional fee for moving items up or down stairs. Understanding these terms can significantly clarify the moving process and costs involved. Read through our Moving Industry Terminology Guide to ensure you understand your moving documents and contracts.

Yes, you can hire movers for single-item or small moves. Services designed for such tasks cater to moving large, bulky items or furniture. When choosing a moving company for small moves, consider their experience with your specific items, insurance coverage, protective measures during the move, and the cost involved.

Whether you need extra moving insurance depends on the value of your belongings and the coverage provided by your moving company. Most movers offer basic liability insurance, but this may not fully cover high-value items. Evaluate the worth of your items and the risk involved in the move. For complete protection, especially for valuable or irreplaceable items, consider purchasing full-value protection insurance.

Choosing between DIY moving with a U-Haul or hiring a professional moving company involves weighing various factors, including cost, time, safety, and the complexity of your move. While renting a moving truck can initially seem more cost-effective, professional movers offer piece-of-mind with an upfront quote covering all services, potentially saving you from the unexpected costs of broken valuables or damaged appliances, to ensure your move is efficient, safe, and streamlined.

We know that moving can be a hassle, even if it's just down the hall or up a few floors. That's why we specialize in same building moves to make your in-building relocation smooth and seamless. Whether you're switching apartments on a different floor, upgrading to a bigger unit, or moving down the hall, we're here to help you with your same building move.

Our team is experienced in managing the unique logistics of same building relocations, so you can trust us to make your same building move as effortless as possible.

Same building moves are relocations within the same building, like moving to a new apartment unit within the same building, be it moving to another floor, or even just down the hall. These same building moves require careful handling and planning, even though the distance is short.

Some buildings require a Certificate of Insurance (COI) for any moving activities, including same building moves with existing building tenants. This document ensures that any potential damages or liabilities during the move are covered. It's best to check with your building management to see if you need one. If you do, don't worry—we provide all the necessary COI paperwork to keep everything moving along.

Hiring professional same building movers ensures that your belongings are handled with care and efficiency. Our team is experienced in navigating tight spaces, using elevators, and moving heavy or bulky items without causing damage to your possessions or the building. We make the process quick and easy, so you don't have to worry about the logistics—whether that's moving up or down stairs, or with an elevator.

Same building moves can typically be more affordable than traditional moves because the distance is shorter. However, factors like the complexity of the move, using multiple elevators or going up and down multiple flights of stairs influence the cost.

The duration of a same building move depends on the size of your move and the complexity of the relocation. Typically, same building moves are faster, but factors like the number of items, elevator access, and the layout of the building can impact the time. Our team aims to complete your move as quickly and efficiently as possible.

Absolutely! Our same building movers are experienced in moving heavy and bulky furniture within the same building. We use specialized equipment and techniques to ensure your furniture is moved safely without causing damage to the building or your furniture.

Just did my move from NYC to CT with Piece of Cake and had a fantastic experience. The process was smooth, courteous, and fast. Very friendly movers (Jozo and team) who worked hard and efficiently. They packed everything, dismantled only what was absolutely necessary and set it all up at the drop off location. I was thrilled having them as my movers and will definitely use them again in the future. Conclusion: If you have to move, congratulations, you found your crew. Book these guys and you will be happy.

Stefan Worth, New York to Connecticut

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you. They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them. Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there. They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebonojo, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MARIA Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

In the Bronx, the first and last few days of each month are peak moving days, especially in spring and summer. This is because most new leases start at the beginning of the month. If you are able to, move in the middle of the month to ensure availability with our movers.

Both morning and afternoon moves are popular moving times in the Bronx. Mornings are in high demand at any time of year, as many people want to settle into their new home earlier. Another reason why morning moves are popular is that some elevator buildings typically don't let people move in after 5pm, making morning and afternoon moves a necessity.

Fridays and weekends are high-demand moving days as most people try to avoid taking too much time off work. Sunday can also be a cheaper move for walk up apartments and house moves since elevator buildings do not generally let people move in & out on a Sunday. If you can afford to take a day out of the office, the start of the week is always a more flexible time to move, from Monday to Wednesday.

As the Bronx's best moving company, Piece of Cake Moving offers extensive moving services in Queens. No matter what you are moving or where you are moving it to, we've got you covered 24/7, 365 days a year.

Services include:

Yes, Piece of Cake Moving offers short and long term storage services in the Bronx. Our On-Demand Bronx storage service is affordable and reliable. We will come to you, pick up your items, move them to our storage facility in NYC and deliver them back to you when you need them. Never visit a storage unit or have the hassle of moving your own items. Get a free storage quote HERE

Yes, Piece of Cake offers our plastic moving bin rental service in the Bronx. Our plastic moving bins are strong, sturdy and environmentally friendly. The general rule of thumb is to base your tip on a percentage of your total move cost, and tipping 15% – 20% of your total cost is an industry average. We recommend a tiered approach depending on whether you're managing a large relocation, a medium sized move with some challenges or a small local move. In the end, if you can't afford a tip, good reviews on websites such as Yelp, Google and Facebook are much appreciated by your movers and go a long way in recognizing their hard work.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

Just did my move from NYC to CT with Piece of Cake and had a fantastic experience. The process was smooth, courteous, and fast. Very friendly movers (Jozo and team) who worked hard and efficiently. They packed everything, dismantled only what was absolutely necessary and set it all up at the drop off location. I was thrilled having them as my movers and will definitely use them again in the future. Conclusion: If you have to move, congratulations, you found your crew. Book these guys and you will be happy.

By Digital Piece of Cake

You've found the perfect apartment. The rent is right, the neighborhood feels like home, and the view is more than you can ask for. There's just one tiny problem—no elevator. Moving into a building with no elevator might sound daunting, but don't worry, we at Piece of Cake Moving & Storage have your back with these top expert tips that can make or break your move with no elevator, especially if you're considering a DIY move.

A solid plan can save you from a world of pain—literally. Take some time to map out the move. Trust us, there's nothing worse than getting your couch stuck halfway up the stairs.

Packing smartly is essential when you're moving to a building without an elevator. The goal is to make carrying boxes up multiple flights of stairs as easy as possible.

We can't stress this enough—don't try to go it alone. Moving into a building without an elevator is a team effort.

If possible, try to move during off-peak quieter hours, like in the middle of work hours on a weekday. Fewer people means more room on the stairs for your stuff when moving into a building with no elevator. With less people around, there will be less foot traffic in the hallways and stairwells, which will make it easier to navigate large items without blocking common areas. The last thing you want during a move is the added stress of blocking neighbors or feeling like you're in the way. Midweek days are typically quieter times in residential buildings and can help make the moving process less stressful and more peaceful.

Moving heavy items up several flights of stairs is no joke. Start with the heaviest and most cumbersome items first when you and your helpers have the most energy. Make sure to use proper lifting techniques to avoid injuries. Bend at the knees, not the waist, and keep the load close to your body. If something's too heavy, get help or use equipment like a dolly. If you're undertaking a DIY move, it's especially important to make your move easier and safer.

These are the essential moving equipment items we recommend that you can easily order off Amazon or similar online retailers for under $100:

By investing in these affordable items, you can make your DIY move much smoother and safer. Not only will you protect your belongings, but you'll also save your body from unnecessary strain.

Remember to give your building management a heads-up about your move. They might let you use service entrances or other handy facilities to make things easier. And if they allow it, stair rollers can be a game-changer for getting heavy stuff up and down the stairs, as not all property managers may allow them.

Parking can be a real headache in busy city areas. Try to secure parking spots as close by as possible. The shorter the distances you have to lug your things to and from the moving truck, the better!

Once everything is in, give yourself a pat on the back—you did it! Now it's time to sit back, relax, and enjoy your new space after a long day of moving. Celebrate by treating yourself to a nearby restaurant in your neighborhood, getting takeout, or ordering in. Whichever you decide, treating yourself and your friends is a great way to thank them for their help and hard work while enjoying each other's company.

Plug in your TV or monitor and create a cozy atmosphere to relax over your favorite streaming show or play some tunes to help decompress from the day's work. By enjoying some well-earned relaxation at the end of it all, you can turn the sometimes hectic moving chaos into an enjoyable bonding experience to remember and kick-off your next chapter in your new home. You've earned it!

If all this sounds like too much work, remember that Piece of Cake Moving & Storage is here to make your move as smooth as possible. Whether you're moving into a fifth-floor walk-up or a ground-floor studio, we've got the expertise to handle it all.

Our professional movers are experienced with the challenges of moving into a building with no elevator. We also offer full packing and white glove moving services to ensure your belongings are protected and handled with the utmost care, especially for a move with no elevator.

No matter how small or big your move is you will experience our unmatched service. We will always go the extra mile to ensure our customers have a stress free and memorable moving experience.

I was really so impressed with PoC. We only needed them to move one (large/heavy) piece of furniture from Brooklyn to Harlem. PoC's quote for this was substantially lower than another moving company I reached out to, and the whole experience was great. They got the job done quickly and professionally. Didn't bat an eye or miss a beat when it turned out the furniture wouldn't fit in our elevator and they had to disassemble and reassemble. Highly recommend and will absolutely be using them for our next larger move!

Briel Steinberg, New York City

I used Piece of Cake to move from NYC to the east end of Long Island and had the best experience from start to finish. My quote from Mit was extremely fair and there were no hidden charges after the fact. The movers arrived 15 min early and were super efficient and kind throughout the whole process. Highly recommend!

Samantha Short, New York City

HIGHLY recommend Piece of Cake Moving company! I contacted 6 companies to find the best to move my son from apartment to condo in Manhattan. I knew immediately I was going to use Piece of Cake because of their professionalism on the phone, ease of communication, rapid response to all communication, and their willingness to work with the price. The day of the move, the 2 gentleman movers were efficient, kind, and very responsible. Excellent company!

Tbr R., New York City

I booked with POC after my friends used them. POC was super accommodating and super speedy in response to every question I had. Onmove day, I was shocked how fast the movers worked! I've never seen anyone carry so many boxes so quickly. I moved from Harlem to Brooklyn and everything was packed in 30 mins.

Everything moved to Brooklyn in an hour. I'm very happy with my move, nothing got damaged and the guys were super sweet! I def recommend and will be using them on my next move

India R., New York City

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

PoC was amazing in its logistics, professionalism & courtesy. On the day of my move, 3 gentlemen were extremely supportive, kind & patient with me as they saw that I am under medical care. They were prompt, cooperative & very time efficient workers. They had me packed & moved by the late afternoon! I would never hesitate to highly recommend this company to anyone that needs to move & need the great help that these company & its workers provided me with! Much continued success to you at PoC!

Flor de Maria Rubinos, New York City

Our move with PoC was so easy and the pricing was reasonable. The bins were delivered as promised and included zip ties to close the bins, labels and packing paper. On moving day, the movers arrived within the time period we were given, and they called immediately before they came. We had two very courteous movers who worked very efficiently. Our move with Piece of Cake was so much easier than moving by ourselves and the pricing was reasonable. Nothing was broken, the gentlemen couldn't have been nicer. Highly Recommend!!

Jennifer Palmerson, New York City

It was truly a Piece of Cake. These guys arrived on time. These movers worked around the broken elevator, sometimes waiting for more than 10 minutes, for the working elevator to empty. They were patient, caring, and hardworking. They completed an entire 2 bedroom move in 4 hours, swiftly and efficiently. Everything was moved with care and precision. I cannot thank them enough for the great service. From the first time I spoke with a customer service representative to get a quote I knew I was in good hands.

Tania Suarez, New York City

When ever I used to think of any moving services before I used to get nightmares. First time I saw a moving company who treats their customers like a family and makes the whole moving experience pleasant. No doubt I will use Piece of Cake Moving services in future. Each and everyone in the company who works are A++

Mayu G, New York City

Amazing service! My movers showed up earlier than expected and were very pleasant to speak with. They moved quickly and efficiently and were careful with my fragile boxes. Highly recommend! Emanuel and Sergio were very patient and gentle with my things and the tight spaces. The guys texted me an hour before their arrival, which gave me time to wrap up. I let them know that my father is high-risk and asked them to wear a mask and they politely obliged.

Natalia Arai, New York City

Deni, Sacha, and Nole were the BEST!! they helped us move from a high rise building in Columbus Circle to a walk up in Brooklyn and they were highly efficient, thoughtful about wrapping our furniture, and overall very nice people. This was a phenomenal moving experience!

JAMie Arias, New York City

I used Piece of Cake to move me from Long Island to Queens, and the process could not have been smoother. The two men worked very quickly to load my things, including a large and heavy antique, and everything arrived and was unpacked safely. They asked where I would like them to place each item, and made sure I was satisfied with the unpacking before they left. It was really a smooth process at a great price and I'll definitely be reaching out to them again for my next move.

Al J, New York City

Made my move seamless. I had problema with my elevators in one building and with parking in another one and my movers went above and beyond to ensure my move was delivered safely and they were super polite. My team of movers spent the whole day with us and never complained or gave up. Everything was safely transported and installed. I highly recommend this service. 100/100. Will never use another company to move in NYC.

Andres Figueroa, New York City

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MAria Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

Brittany Carol Hazeldine, New York

Piece of Cake Moving & Storage made my life SO EASY with my situation of Moved out from one place and need to stored my belonging for only a week during waiting period before I can moved in to new place. Both of the mover teams, moved out team and moved in team, were very nice and obviously handle my belonging with care. They were working on disassembling and reassembling all of the furniture so quickly and nothing be damaged.

I definitely recommend this company if you need a moving services!!!!

Natchanok C., California

Long-distance move experience: From NYC to Tampa: 7 days from pickup to delivery Everything went smoothly; good communication with company regarding updates via email. Upon delivery of furniture, screws were missing for footings of couch, but crew went to Home Depot and returned within 2 hours to finish the job. Overall, great experience and awesome price!

Alex S, New York to Florida

I have had the pleasure to work with Miljan and Jevgenij. These two guys were patient, quick, efficient and very careful with all boxes and fragile items. Took their time to wrap things well and maneuver within narrow hallways. This was a long distance move to Boston. They arrived on time and were patient enough to work within the new building rules.

Dili Dhanani, New York to Boston

PoC rocks! They are kind, professional, communicative, effective, and efficient. We were moving from NY to California, and we have a newborn so we had to opt for packing and moving our one-bedroom and needed it to be as stress-free as possible. We received a few communications while our stuff was in the process of moving across the country to let us know how things were going. Overall, they were a WONDERFUL choice, they rolled with punches with humor, they're efficient and clearly much better at me at packing/moving.

Don N., New York to California

I used PoC to move from Brooklyn to Boston. Every step with them was smooth and efficient. I got a quote quickly and communication was quick and clear before, during, and after the move. My movers were professional, kind, and efficient. They treated my belongings with care and made the process as easy as an interstate move could be. The movers arrived at my apartment at 8am and finished unpacking the truck in Boston by 4:30pm on the same day. I would absolutely use PoC for any future moves!

Jenna S., New York To Boston

This superior moving company is #1 in NYC and, in my view, in the USA! I contacted Piece of Cake in May 2022 when my 87 year old Mum decided to move from Westchester NY to Jacksonville. From the first contact, during the unprecedented busyness of the moving business during this housing market boom, Patricia proved again and again her knowledge, expertise, guidance and availability. The move was, as the cliché goes, a piece of cake. I am grateful and relieved to this business for their competence, courtesy and excellence.

Jackson C., New York to Florida

Thank you to Sasa, Stephen and Johnny for making this move so incredibly easy. They called 15 mins before arriving and had my storage space completely moved out in 1 hour. They were very professional, fast, hard working and nice. I would highly recommend this company!! Can't wait for all my items to arrive at my new home in Florida.

Scott M., New York to Florida

I had such a phenomenal experience with this team. The team was professional, timely, and their prices were incredibly reasonable for the phenomenal service I got from them. Two guys moved my things from my storage unit in Plymouth Meeting, PA to my FIFTH floor walk up on the Upper East Side in NYC. Whenever I move again, this will be the first place I call. Cannot speak highly enough about my experience here

Ivanica S., California

I moved from NYC to Boston. These guys were amazing to work with. They were very careful with all my boxes, especially with fragile items. Everything was well padded and moved carefully. At the same time, they were very efficient and quick. Dan was great to work with over the phone. I have had to revise my dates and quotes 3 times but he was able to give me good price and even match the competitor's rate with the 5 star piece of cake service. Highly recommend piece of cake

Dili D., New York to Boston

Awesome moving company! They covered all matters moving from soup to nuts. Our movers were prompt, professional, and courteous. Those dudes absolutely nailed the moving. We did an out-of-state move, and all of our items made it through with no issues. All items were in the exact condition they were in prior to the move, which is a testament to the level of care they took when moving our things. All-in-all, I couldn't recommend this company enough if you're planning a move. They truly made moving a piece of cake!

Myk H., Pennsylvania

I have used Piece of Cake twice this year for interstate moves. In both cases I was not at the pickup (my rep was), and I met them on the delivery side. In both cases there were some important details. I only told them once at the booking and they had everything 100% correct in the record and execution. They kept me in the loop throughout. In person the delivery people were efficient and so friendly. Highly recommend.

Betsy S., New York

I cannot say enough good things about piece of cake. Max has been incredibly helpful assisting in our cross country move. Their professionalism is simply unmatched. 10/10 would recommend! Thank you so much Max for everything!

Hilary Johnson, New York

Suze Foley, New York

After my original moving company was continuously proving to be unorganized and unprofessional, I decided to switch to Piece of Cake and was not disappointed! They made moving from the city to a storage unit in NJ the most seamless moving experience and all with a smile on their face and very reasonable rate.

Samantha F., New Jersey

We used Piece of Cake for two moves this month. What an amazing company! They were on time, had fair pricing and completed both moves with ease. The office staff is amazing and the customer service is great. What a breath of fresh air!

Lisa H., New Jersey

Imagine the best case scenario for your moving process. That's what it is like to work with Piece of Cake Moving! It was quick, great price, and great customer service!

Mikhail New York

I had a last minute move, and they were able to accommodate me. They were very friendly on the phone. My move time was 9am and they came around 8:30am, they called before they came up to my apt to ensure I was ready. I moved the majority of my things in to storage. Very quick, efficient and gentile with boxes. Nice and pleasant movers.

Sima P. New York, NY

I had to make an emergency trip overseas and had to manage my entire move remotely. It was all perfectly and seamlessly executed. Easy to use online payments. Quite elated that I found these guys. Can vouch for them even in my sleep! Thank you guys!!

Shay T. Hoboken, NJ

Piece of Cake was very friendly, efficient, and easy to use. They were amazing and will definitely use again!

Samantha New York, NY

Incredibly nice team, very hardworking, and high quality work! At a reasonable price. Would strongly recommend their services to any friends!

Christie New York

LOVE them, so friendly and efficient, would definitely use them again.

Sarah-Jayne New York

Awesome. Last minute call and they showed up did the work and were extremely professional and reasonably priced

Jenny F. New York, NY

Working with Piece of Cake was one of the best decisions we made in our recent move. Leading up the the move, communication with the HQ team was seamless. We could not believe how well they engineered the move. They were polite and very courteous, efficient, and incredibly hard working. Don't waste your time, just book with them.

Meghan Graniello New York

If I could give 10 stars I would. I had so much anxiety about moving and this team made my move a smooth and painless process. They were friendly, efficient and so professional. Not looking to move again anytime soon but if I do POC moving is a no brainer. Will be recommending them to all friends and family.

Omi Antoine New York

I got quotes from a few companies and PoC was definitely the most responsive in terms of answering all my questions, willing to work with building limitations, and stayed in contact throughout the moving process. The movers were personable, efficient, and got the job done in a few hours. Overall great experience and would definitely recommend Piece of Cake to anyone I know.

Anna Shen New York

The experience we had with Piece of Cake Moving was so great that we will never move in NYC without them! The movers were quick, efficient and went above and beyond our expectations. They arrived on time and got to work right away! We were blown away with how fast we were moved out and moved in!

Clarissa B. Los Angeles, CA

Extremely happy we went with Piece of Cake for our move. The team was very fast moving, documents prepared quickly, responses very timely. The move was a piece of cake

Lisa H. New York

Efficient and accommodating. There was a mix up with a mover I had previously scheduled and I contacted piece of cake at the absolute last minute. Excellent people and company!

Nick N. Whitestone, Queens, NY

I called them one day before I had to move. They showed up early and made the move a breeze.

George W. New York, NY

I reached out to Piece of Cake about 5 days before our move. The movers arrived on time and worked very efficiently. Nothing was dented or broken in the move. I was so impressed with this company from start to finish, highly recommend!

Lee Ann C. RIDGEWOOD, NY

One of the best moving companies I've ever used! Team of 3 arrived on time and got on with work immediately. They were polite, friendly and extremely efficient. They also had a lot of patience as our elevator booking was delayed and didn't complain at all. I couldn't recommend their services enough!

Marzena D. Brooklyn, NY

I booked piece of cake moving about 36 hrs before my move and they were beyond accommodating. The guys were smiling the entire time and were so efficient loading up the truck. They even read the labels on my boxes and put everything in the appropriate rooms in my new apartment. It was the best and fastest moving experience.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there. They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebajo, New York

Piece of Cake Movers moved me from the Financial District to the Hudson Valley in June 2022. It was absolutely flawless. The two men that worked the move were polite, careful, efficient and knowledgeable. Not a scratch on anything including the brand new apartment I moved into. They were focused and diligent. In Manhattan the logistics are more complicated yet Piece of Cake rose to the occasion in every way. What's more, the moving fee was very reasonable and there were no hidden charges, no surprises.

James B., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you.They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them.Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

I am so appreciative of PoC. I did the moving with about two months of storage. Heidi was responsive to all of my questions in a promptly manner and always compassionate and incredibly accommodating. Petko and his team worked insanely smoothly and efficiently. Adrian scheduled my move out for that next day and canceled my storage fees! It's affordable, efficient, and the team that works there is one of the most empathetic and overall nice people I have met during such a stressful moment.

Valentina Torresi, New York

These guys are the best.Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

In Manhattan, the first and last few days of each month are peak moving days, especially in spring and summer. This is because most new leases start at the beginning of the month. If you are able to, move in the middle of the month to ensure availability with our movers.

Both morning and afternoon moves are popular moving times in Manhattan. Mornings are in high demand at any time of year, as many people want to settle into their new home earlier. Another reason why morning moves are popular is that some elevator buildings typically don't let people move in after 5pm, making morning and afternoon moves a necessity.

Fridays and weekends are high-demand moving days as most people try to avoid taking too much time off work. Sunday can also be a cheaper move for walk up apartments and house moves since elevator buildings do not generally let people move in & out on a Sunday. If you can afford to take a day out of the office, the start of the week is always a more flexible time to move, from Monday to Wednesday.

As Manhattan's best moving company, Piece of Cake Moving offers extensive moving services in Manhattan. No matter what you are moving or where you are moving it to, we've got you covered 24/7, 365 days a year. Services include:

Yes, Piece of Cake Moving offers short and long term storage services in Manhattan. Our On-Demand Manhattan storage service is affordable and reliable. We will come to you, pick up your items, move them to our storage facility in NYC and deliver them back to you when you need them. The general rule of thumb is to base your tip on a percentage of your total move cost, and tipping 15% – 20% of your total cost is an industry average. We recommend a tiered approach depending on whether you're managing a large relocation, a medium sized move with some challenges or a small local move. In the end, if you can't afford a tip, good reviews on websites such as Yelp, Google and Facebook are much appreciated by your movers and go a long way in recognizing their hard work.

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

safely packed all my bins and furniture into their truck. The team just as efficiently unloaded everything, leaving the bins in the labeled rooms and re assembling my bed frame. I definitely recommend renting their bins. I would definitely use Piece of Cake movers again and recommend them to a friend.

Morgan Kolb, New York

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly. Pls make sure you tip your movers good, they work hard and were really great!

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there.

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move

and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. Page: Flat fee movers: What is a flat fee in moving industry? | Piece of Cake Moving & Storage

Have you ever completed a move only to have your movers update the invoice at the end of the job, adding more charges and leaving you with a strange feeling something wasn't right about the experience?

Piece of Cake is built to remove surprises and ensure your move is a positive one, delivered on time and on budget with movers that go the extra mile to support you.

volume of your items + mileage of your move + special requests & moving complexities = Your Piece of Cake Flat fee.

We measure the volume of your move in Cubic Feet or rather the Cubic Feet of the items we are moving for you. When we quote you, we use our furniture and item calculator that estimates your move's volume so we can accurately reserve the right size of truck and quote your move. We take a full inventory of all of your items to correctly quote your Cubic Feet.

The distance from your first location to your final destination, taking into account any stops along the way.

Do you have a large marble table you want to move? Are you in a pre-war walk up with stairs and tight corners? These factors will help us determine the best process for moving you and any additional man power needed during your move.

When you choose an hourly or weight based moving service you would be surprised at the additional fees that can really add up.

With Piece of Cake's moving flat fee your charges are upfront and include many moving add-ons for free, as part of the one price.

Don't risk your budget for what may look like a better price at first glance but has hidden pitfalls on the day.

With the chances of traffic in gridlock in major cities on the rise, a price based on time can easily spiral out of control.

Guesses how much your move is and tells you if they can do the job.

May not bring enough equipment and movers to complete your job as they did not itemize inventory.

You can pay for however long it takes for them to move you, they may stretch out your move.

Given the price isn't guaranteed, if multiple other materials are required for your move which weren't in your estimate they can increase your charge on the day.

Additional travel expenses can be passed on to you, like tolls and tickets.

Easily impacted by unexpected issues such as traffic.

Some moving companies charge by the total weight of all your belongings, this applies to long distance moves.

Under this pricing structure, they provide an initial price that includes traffic expenses like tolls and mileage. However after the truck is loaded and weighed again they will adjust pricing accordingly. There is a BIG element of surprise, and as you have already committed to them you can't change at the last minute.

It's also near impossible to estimate exactly how much your items will weigh in total in advance, to help you estimate what the final charge might be and stick to a budget.

With your Long Distance move we will price it as if you were moving locally. The only difference being that the mileage makes up much more of your moving fee.

volume of your items + mileage of your move + special requests & moving complexities = Your Piece of Cake Flat fee.

With Piece of Cake Moving & Storage, any travel expenses incurred during your move such as road tolls are included in your price, meaning no hidden extras on the day. Any travel related expenses like tolls and fuel are included in the price, as well as the cost of moving labor for your booking.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

Russell Gon, New York

Piece of Cake Movers moved me from the Financial District to the Hudson Valley in June 2022. It was absolutely flawless. The two men that worked the move were polite, careful, efficient and knowledgeable. Not a scratch on anything including the brand new apartment I moved into. They were focused and diligent. In Manhattan the logistics are more complicated yet Piece of Cake rose to the occasion in every way. What's more, the moving fee was very reasonable and there were no hidden charges, no surprises.

James B., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

Easiest moving experience ever. I had packed all my boxes myself, and the two guys came and loaded everything in 45 or so minutes. They wrapped my paintings and all of my fragile items and desk that I forgot to include in my inventory. The guys were very efficient, polite, and professional. They drove my belongings from NYC to Maryland and unpacked everything, and my parents had only good things to say of their experience with them as well. I will recommend Piece of Cake moving to friends & family!

Katie B, New York to Maryland

Excellent service!! Our team packed up quickly and efficiently. They were also very nice and respectful. We moved from NY to NC and the movers met us the next morning to unload all of our belongings. I thought everything was fairly priced true to the quote. I did not get any last minute charges. Nothing broke during the move. The team was very good! Piece of cake made everything very easy from booking through the actual move. I would highly recommend using this company!!

Erica Davis, New York to North Carolina

I've moved countless times in my life, and I've never had such a painless experience with movers. They were so organized ahead of time, double and triple checking the inventory. There were no price surprises on move day. And the move was surprisingly reasonable for a move from NYC to Baltimore. Would absolutely recommend!

Joseph C., NYC to Baltimore

Thrilled that I chose PoC. From initial contact, to the final thank you's, to the muscles - the whole moving experience was a "piece of cake"!! The muscle men were friendly, courteous, efficient and careful with our belongings. Definitely well-tuned movers. All communications were timely and clearly understood. Kept me in the loop for the short delay in arrival time. Felt the cost of the service was more than fair for the exceptional quality of the work received. I would use them again in a heartbeat!

Linda L, New York City

I used Piece of Cake to move from FL to CT and it was the best decision I've made! They were very responsive and able to accommodate a few things I had to change last minute! They were super early, all the staff was helpful, nice, communicative, very efficient and careful with all our belongings. We are extremely happy with their service and would recommend Piece of Cake to everyone! Thank you for making our move smooth and easy!

Andreina Tuccella, Florida to California

PoC helped me move my things from a single U-Pack ReloCube into a 4th floor studio walkup. To get a quote, I sent them a picture of the packed cube and they did the rest. The day of, two guys showed up with a truck and were super friendly and ready to get to work. They were both great and fast even in the face of the stairs and the 80+ degree heat! I'd definitely return for future moves with PoC

Ryan L., New York City

Without a doubt the best moving experience I've had. I wish I could give this company more than 5 stars. Niko was so professional, patient, and accommodating - making my move as relaxing as possible. He and his crew were very efficient and careful with my items as they disassembled, packed, transported, and reassembled them. The communication was top notch and I received a very accurate and competitive quote. If you need reliable movers, Piece of Cake is the only company you should consider. I am so impressed!

Kiki Tsirakidis, New York

After many searches on finding a moving company, I choose Piece of Cake. Excellent choice! Sofia was extremely helpful and polite. Their quotes are accurate. The movers arrived on time, was professional, was very careful with my belongings, helpful in placing the boxes where I needed them and before leaving inquired if I needed further assistance. I am 100% happy with Piece of Cake. Would definitely recommend them to family and friends.

Giselle Gill-Havens, New York

This was my first long-distance move (NY to GA) for a studio apartment. It was so easy, smooth, and hassle-free. Their quote (even for long-distance moves) is one of the most reasonable compared to other movers, They're very organized. They're fast. Like FFAST. I had a couple friends ask me how the move went, and all I can say was it went smooth, no issues at all, and didn't realize how lucky I got finding Piece of

My movers arrived on the earlier side of the time window I was given, so we were off to a good start there.

They were very attentive, courteous and worked quickly to get me out and in without a hitch, and that included a pick up at my storage space. All communications leading up to the move were timely and clear. I definitely would use them again or recommend them to anyone needing their services.

Henry Adebonojo, New York

We have used Piece of Cake Movers three times while renovating our apartment in NYC and we couldn't be happier. We had a different crew each time and every single guy was courteous, professional, and went above and beyond. The process was very simple, and communicating with Mit from scheduling was a breeze. We would give them 10 stars if we could!

Rebecca Kwei, New York

Had a great experience with this company. They were the most responsive by email and very prompt. They gave up front costs/fees that were not time-based, which I felt was more appropriate as otherwise moving companies overcharge when staff take longer. They got the job done quickly and without any hidden back-end costs. Would definitely use again!

Sarah Blumenthal, New York

Piece of Cake was very responsive and flexible tailored their offer to our needs and sent two persons who were professional and kind. We enjoyed our experience with Piece of Cake who made the move much easier. Thank you!

Nick Hartmann, New York

I had to leave my belongings in storage for two weeks. They were excellent. All of my belongings were wrapped, padded, and protected. The guys were efficient, friendly, knowledgeable, and courteous. The same guys dropped off when I moved from the storage unit. When returned, two pieces had slight damage. PoC offered a considerable amount of money, and I was very surprised and pleased. I will definitely use them again, and recommend them to anyone in the city. I've moved several times, and haven't been this pleased.

Gabe E., New York

I movers haven't even shown up yet and I'm already very pleased. I worked with Blake to coordinate my move and he was wonderful. Quick responses, answered my questions, multiple proposals so I could compare rates to make sure it fit in my budget. I can't say enough good things about my experience so far. My stuff has to be stored for a few weeks and I was a bit hesitant at first but seeing what amazing customer service they have makes me feel I'm in good hands. Highly recommend!

Alyssa Martorano, New York

Had an amazing experience moving with Piece of Cake. They responded very quickly and helped me through the entire process by answering my many questions. They made moving a breeze and I would definitely use them again in the future!

Lauren Flot, New York

Piece of Cake movers were professional and responsive from getting the quote and their COI to the pre-move checklist to the two movers who handled my belongings as if they owned them. Highly recommend

Lisa Kovitz, New York

Very pleased with this company. They showed up on time, were very professional, and took care while moving my belongings. The price was right and they were finished before the allotted time. Would definitely use them again and recommend them to a friend!!

MARIA Collora, New York

These guys are the best. Simple as that. You can't beat the quality and pricing. Have used other moving companies before and always had bad experiences to make me lose trust in them. Piece of Cake restored that trust!

Marc Samaha, New York

I could not have been happier with the service from start to finish. Customer service was responsive, communication was clear and left no guesswork, the movers called when they were supposed to, showed up on time for pick up and delivery, and were careful with my belongings, friendly, professional. It was a stress free experience and I thought the price was very fair. I would definitely use them again.

Aphrodite Koscelansky, New York

I had a fantastic experience with piece of cake! I'd never hired Movers before, so I had no idea what to expect and was very nervous that things would go wrong. But they were on top of everything and so kind throughout the whole process! Well done, and I hope to use your services again one day!

Russell Gon, New York

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you. They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them. Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Irwin J., California

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare. Everything went extremely smoothly. I would hire Piece of Cake again.

Michelle K., New York

My team arrived right at the start of their arrival window and quickly and safely packed all my bins and furniture into their truck. I would definitely use Piece of Cake movers again and recommend them to a friend.

The movers were so professional, friendly and quick. They took such great care of my stuff. I happened to move on one of the hottest days of the year and felt so bad. They were gracious and so still worked quickly.

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!

Just did my move from NYC to CT with Piece of Cake and had a fantastic experience. The process was smooth, courteous, and fast. Very friendly movers (Jozo and team) who worked hard and efficiently. They packed everything, dismantled only what was absolutely necessary and set it all up at the drop off location. I was thrilled having them as my movers and will definitely use them again in the future. Conclusion: If you have to move, congratulations, you found your crew. Book these guys and you will be happy.

From start to finish my move was a great experience. I immediately got a quote. The scheduling was easy, and they provided me with information regarding insurance coverage (and took care of the paperwork my building provided). The move itself went like clockwork. The movers arrived on time and texted me when they were on their way with an ETA to the delivery site. They moved everything up the 3 flights of stairs into my apartment quickly and safely. A great company that provides great service at very reasonable rates.

They were awesome! They take everything apart and then re assemble for you. They wrap up your tvs and glass shit professionally. They take the legs off your couch so it fits through doors. Everything's wrapped until it's inside so it doesn't ruin the paint on your walls if they rub against them. Not even a wine glass was chipped.

Andrew T., New York

They came at zero hour after the moving company I initially hired and paid a deposit to canceled. I was freaking out about my move not happening at all but they did get this done and my stuff arrived more or less intact and accounted for. They handled changes and snafus gracefully and earned their money. Hopefully I won't be moving again for a long time but if I get forced into that again, I'll remember this experience.

Monica T., New York

Was very easy to call and set up a move. The price was good to. I had some mix-ups and needed to add items and even change the date, but they were able to easily accommodate. Day of the move the crew was super nice and professional. They quickly packed up the entire apartment with ease, I didn't really lift a finger. They made what is usually a stressful day pretty easy.

Fotios Hatzis, New York

I was amazed how efficient the guys were. they sorted out my items to be removed and, went straight to work. We will definitely use A Piece of Cake multiple times in the future until, we officially make the BIG MOVE! THANKS FOR YOUR HELP....YES, IT WAS A PIECE OF CAKE! NO STRESS INVOLVED...JUST SWEET SERVINGS.....

Piece of Cake Moving was phenomenal to work with. From the initial sale, to the follow up, to the day of delivery. The moving crew themselves were a dream to work with. I honestly don't know how they managed to move everything we'd accumulated over the years in such a short (relatively) period of time. Will definitely use them again (in hopefully 7-8 years).

Tod S., New York

Jose and his team did a great job moving my husband and I. They arrived on time and were very organized. They were professional, courteous and moved us quickly. They wrapped our furniture very well. They took apart and put together our bed and sectional couch. We were very pleased and would recommend them.

Jill S., New York

Nicholas and Giga made this moving experience an easy one, especially since I was moving alone. They were punctual, kind and very thoughtful. When we arrived to my apartment? They helped unwrap all the packing tape and set up my furniture and bed - something that would take probably days for me. They delivered excellent service and went beyond my expectations.

Arshey R., New York

Excellent moving company. I hired 2 men for 2 hours to complete 1 bedroom move. They arrived early, were extremely efficient, helpful, personable, strong, and careful. They finished the job with 45 min to spare.

Michelle K., New York

Morgan Kolb, New York

I had made an appointment from another moving company that completely screwed me over the day of. I called every moving company in New York freaking out, and Piece of Cake was willing to come at 7pm to help me move, last minute. I genuinely don't know what I would have done if they didn't go out of their way to fit me in. Anytime in the future I will be using piece of cake moving! They boxed and unboxed so fast and efficiently, it was amazing!
