MoveMint cannot be responsible for the working condition of major appliances. Please empty freezer/refrigerator contents for safe moving. We are happy to load these last and unload them first.

MoveMint will not repair pressed board or simulated wood furniture. This is furniture that is made from pressed wood or wood by-product material with a wood veneer applied. This type of material is not structurally strong, especially if it has screws. It is not repairable and we have seen it crumble from the smallest vibrations riding in a truck across town. We will do our best to move it successfully for you.

We are not responsible for the conditions of items placed into storage. You are responsible for providing protective blankets and other wrap, unless otherwise requested.

The right is reserved by MoveMint to repair or replace any damaged item(s)

MoveMint was founded on July 4, 2020 in Flowood, MS. What began as a late-night “what if” conversation among longtime friends turned into a real opportunity. With $100 we registered our company, built a website, and opened for business. Within two weeks, we had sold our first job. After a month, we had three jobs on the books. We have continued to grow, month over month, all the way to the present date with over $1 million in lifetime sales. Today, MoveMint is a full-fledged, fully licensed and insured moving company that gainfully employs about 10 members of our community. To date, we have served over 600 happy customers with jobs ranging from one or two pieces up to large commercial jobs requiring weeks of planning and stellar execution. We have maintained 100% customer satisfaction throughout this time, as evidenced by our over 60 five star reviews on all platforms. When you book a job with MoveMint, you are booking a job with a family of people who work hard every day to deliver the best moving experience you’ve ever had. Most of our movers have been with the company for longer than a year, many more than three years. We take great pride in delivering a moving experience that easily beats any you’ve had before. We do this by treating you well throughout the entire process, listening to your concerns, and asking the questions you haven’t considered to make sure everything goes smoothly on move day. We make our pricing as transparent as possible, and use industry-leading software to ensure consistency in our pricing and provide a top-notch, paperless customer experience. To us, you aren’t just another customer. You’re the foundation for a company we hope to be a household name in our hometown, and we are immensely thankful for every chance at winning your business.
